Brilliant Decision

2015 dkb G, Bellamy Road – Tiny Decision (Ogygian)

Brilliant Decision, son of Ogygian's stakes placed daughter Tiny Decision, began racing at age three for owners, breeder Sally Thomas and trainer Lee J. Rossi, but a fracture put his career on hold until age four. Strong during morning works but hesitant in races, he lacked the will to win that makes a successful athlete. In nine starts in Kentucky, Louisiana and Ohio, he achieved one win at Belterra Park in Cincinnati for career earnings of $12,072. Sensitive, headstrong under tack, with a sound, but not visually perfect, healed leg, he was not a likely candidate for show competition or pleasure riding. We thank racing owner Lee Rossi for enabling Brilliant Decision's retirement to Old Friends, where his intelligence and big capacity for affection suit him perfectly for meeting and greeting visitors. At last this sweet guy has found a career at which he is truly brilliant.
