Cougar Bait

2010 dkb G Gigawatt – Silver Gloss (Silver Ghost)

Louisiana-bred Cougar Bait was a claiming horse for most of his career. Raced in his home state from ages two through eight, and competing for most of that time for Circle H Farms and trainer Alan Klanfer, he won at Evangeline Downs, the Fair Grounds and Louisiana Downs with jockeys Ashley Broussard, Gerard Melancon, Randall Toups and Mitchell Murrill. He ran his best on the turf at a mile to a mile and a sixteenth, at middle claiming levels. Dropping in class at age six, he scored a three race win streak piloted by Ashley Broussard. By age seven, running for a $5,000 tag, he won for Rebecca Wilson and Shane Wilson. Having finished his racing career with 39 starts, 8 wins, 5 seconds and 6 thirds for a total $138,940, he was offered for sale. When the founders of Country Boy brewery and taproom learned of the horse who shared a name with one of their flagship craft beers they purchased the former campaigner and enabled Cougar Bait's retirement to Old Friends.
