Logansport

2001 ch G Rahy – Shared Emotion (Storm Bird)

Logansport's breeding is impressive, and his eye-catching coloring also makes a big impression. By Rahy, he is out of a daughter of Storm Bird, her damsire Secretariat. Logansport is a chestnut, but with his light coat and pale blond mane he looks almost palomino. Foaled at Kinsman Farm in Florida, he began racing as a homebred at age three but did not prove an outstanding athlete. His wins against modest claiming company came mostly with regular jockey Jesse Garcia for his breeder, then for Gannon Racing Stable, also for Ronald H. Fledderman, trained by Duane Knipe, Michael Meese, Manuel Estevez and Barbara Mc Bride. His earnings total $40,272. He then worked as a therapeutic riding horse with the Milestones Equestrian Achievement Program, a non-profit benefiting people with disabilities and seniors, in Independence Kentucky. At age twenty, Logansport settled into retirement at Old Friends thanks to the efforts of Claire Novak.
