Massone

2006 ch G Menifee – Stoneleigh’s Hope (Damascus)

Multiple graded stakes-placed Massone came close to achieving glory on several occasions. Owned by Frankfurt stables and trained by Ron McAnally, he ran second in the 2009 El Camino Real Derby (G3) at Golden Gate Fields, was in strong contention until the last strides of the 2009 Blue Grass Stakes (G1) at Keeneland but finished third, and that summer finished third again in the Cinema Handicap (G3) at Hollywood Park. After an allowance win at Del Mar he was outrun only narrowly by two competitors (one of them no less a horse than Blame) in the Louisiana Super Derby (G2). He concluded his 2009 campaign with a third in Santa Anita’s Sir Beaufort Stakes (G3). With trainers Steven Specht, Tim Yakteen, then Monty Meier, Massone continued to race at top levels from 2010 into 2012, hitting the board in the 2012 Arcadia Stakes (G2) at Santa Anita and always finishing forward in the field, but he never clinched that coveted stakes victory. He continued to race to the age of eight, earning well but not winning. Though he only won twice, Massone can’t be called unsuccessful with eleven seconds a dozen thirds and $576,592 career earnings. He was retired by Frankfurt Stable to Old Friends in 2014. If purses were awarded not for speed but beauty, Massone would be a champion.
