Misszoey Belle

2005 b M Jambalaya Jazz – Ransom the Belle (Red Ransom)

Bred in Kentucky by John Oxley, Misszoey Belle was a far harder worker than her refined good looks suggest. Her racing career began in 2008 at three years old when, owned by Patrick D. Donohoe and trained by Ian Wilkes, she started in a mid-level maiden special weight at Gulf Stream Park and finished second to last. She raced six more times before seeing the winner's circle, and then it was due to a disqualification. It was at Keeneland that she got her first actual win in a $30K claimer with Robby Alberado on board. She raced on the Kentucky circuit for the next few years, winless until 2010 in a $7.5K claiming race at Turfway. Misszoey Belle continued to campaign at lower levels until the age of eight with four more wins for various connections at River Downs, Turfway Park and Beulah Park. Her last start was at Beulah for $4K. She finished last. She'd given all she had for years and there was no more. She retired with 7 wins in 74 starts and $70,075 lifetime earnings. Misszoey Belle reached the good life at Old Friends in 2013 and no multiple graded stakes winner ever worked harder to earn it.
