RACING AT ITS FINEST

Welcome

By Michael Blowen

A few days before Christmas last year, a very pleasant woman and her three children came to Old Friends to visit. After the tour was finished, and the three children were warming their hands rubbing Little Silver Charm's impressive winter coat, she turned to me and said, quite sincerely, that she thought I had changed the world of horse racing. I was flattered, of course, and embarrassed. But, a while later, after the basking and gloating wore off, I realized it was exactly the opposite.

Ever since we started, way back in 2003, the world has changed me. It's not the other way around. From the moment Diane thought Old Friends was a good idea and agreed to leave Boston for Midway, Ky., she has always changed me for the better.

We were inspired by Barbara Livingston's book, "Old Friends: Visits with my Favorite Thoroughbreds." I stole her title because her revelatory photographs captured so eloquently the indescribable effect these old athletes have on those who love them. When I saw Bold Forbes and Forego at the Kentucky Horse Park, I was thrilled. So, I not only stole Barbara's title, but I also stole the Horse Park's idea of retiring these great Thoroughbreds to attract visitors (and donors) to a location smack dab in the middle of the Bluegrass.

When the late Dr. Doug Byars made the mistake of donating $1,000 to Old Friends, I wanted to thank him. That entrée opened the door to his wisdom and friendship. The same with Dr. Bryan Walldridge and Ercel Ellis and Alfred Nuckols Jr. And Betty Sue Walters of Afton Farm, who opened her doors when we were on the verge of moving the Old Friends operation to New York. And all the knowledgeable people at the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, especially Missy Klick, who brought me to Kentucky in the first place. I didn't change these people; they changed me.

When we needed a million dollars from Elmer Whitaker and Whitaker Bank to purchase Dream Chase Farm in Georgetown, Taylor's Special and my great friend John Ciccolo provided the resources. I didn't have any money, but I had everything else.

Later, when we needed to expand to take in more deserving retirees, John Ballantyne seemed to appear out of nowhere with an overwhelmingly generous contribution. As did Jerry Moss and the late Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel and owner Mike Repole. And Bob and Jill Baffert and Paul Braverman and Michael Hui and Bill Spawr and Chris McCarron and Mike Smith and Kent Desormeaux. And JoAnn and Mark Pepper and Jack Knowlton and Joe Bokan Jr.

There are so many people that have changed us. From racing greats to $2 bettors and our tour guides, we are forever grateful.

But the ones who changed us the most, of course, are the Thoroughbreds. From Belmont winners such as Touch Gold, Sarava, and Birdstone to Summer Attraction, who I claimed for $3,500 on Mother's Day in 1999, these inspirational athletes are our reason for being and they change us every day.

Especially, Silver Charm. He wears his fame as easily as he does his winter blanket. Like the trip he gave Robert and Beverly Lewis and Bob Baffert and Gary Stevens during his Hall of Fame career, he's navigating an equally compelling journey here at Old Friends every day. At 28, he's the only living Thoroughbred featured in the Blood-Horse book, "The 100 Greatest Thoroughbreds of the 20th Century," who is still alive. And he is now one of the 100 greatest Thoroughbreds of the 21st century.

Visitors arrive from all over the world to tell stories about him and take selfies that have ended up on more than one Christmas card every year. While we now have to chop up his carrots a little smaller and wait a little while longer for him to greet us at his gate, at 28 he just keeps getting more excited about the future. And, at 75, I'm grateful for that lesson, in particular.

Landmarks in the life of Old Friends

By Michael Blowen

Selecting impactful moments from the rich history of Old Friends is like trying to correctly select the pick six every day for 20 days. It's pretty much impossible. I seldom allow reflection because I think it can anchor you to the past and obscure the future.

But I relished the opportunity to revisit so many of the landmarks that have led to our present state. Lingering over the careers of Silver Charm, War Emblem, and so many others, has brought great personal pleasure. I am so extremely grateful to these athletes and everyone who has taken valuable time to visit us and support us.

HOW IT STARTED

As a handicapper trying to hone my limited skills, I arrived at trainer Carlos Figueroa's barn and became a bottom-of-the-barrel groom at Boston's Suffolk Downs and Rockingham Park in New Hampshire from 1997-98. He let me observe. He left me alone. I left with a profound love for these Thoroughbreds and the lurking idea that, someday, I might be able to do something involving horses when my journalism career ended.

Fast forward several years to the front porch of Anne's Washington Inn in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Proprietor and friend Joe Bokan and I started talking about what happens to Thoroughbreds when their racing and breeding days are over. Suddenly, I blurted out that I wanted a place for stallions to retire and for visitors to come and appreciate these marvelous Thoroughbreds. The idea of Old Friends was born. Little did I think that it would ever evolve into what Old Friends has become.

In 2001, after my wife, Diane White, and I gratefully accepted the Boston Globe's generous buyout offer, I accepted an offer to become operations director for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation (TRF), and we moved to Midway, Ky. I explained to Diane that if we didn't like it we could always move back.

"Let me think about it," she said. Twenty minutes later, she came back. "I'll come with you under one condition," she said. What's that? "That when I leave you, you won't come looking for me."

Thank goodness, she's still here.

A GIFT FROM A NEW FRIEND

"Old Friends: Visits with My Favorite Thoroughbreds," by multiple Eclipse Award-winning photographer Barbara Livingston, captures the essence of dozens of retired racehorses. It's an inspirational treasure trove that illustrates the tremendous value these athletes possess well beyond their racing and breeding careers. When I thought about starting a home for retired Thoroughbreds in 2003, I wanted the name "Old Friends" because it boldly expressed the essence of the idea. I called Barbara, and she and Eclipse Press, the book's publisher, selflessly gave me permission. Some people mistakenly believe that her book was named after the farm. She's a great sport about it.

NARROW ESCAPE TO AFTON

Old Friends was floundering before it even began. The idea of a home for retired racehorses that was open to visitors seemed DOA. One summer afternoon in 2003, I was sitting on a park bench in Midway when Betty Sue Walters, the gregarious proprietor of a Railroad Street antique shop, approached me.

"What's the matter with you?" she asked.

I blurted out all my frustrations concerning the leaden response the idea was getting in Kentucky.

"They just called from Fasig-Tipton about a mare that was left at the sale and needed a home, and I can't find one spot," I said.

"Get in my truck," she said, "I've got room."

A few days later, our first official Old Friends retiree was in a paddock at Afton Farm. Her name was Narrow Escape, something we both experienced.

GROWING AT HURSTLAND

In 2004, after nearly two years at Afton Farm, we needed more room. One night when I was sitting at a bar in Midway, Ky., Alfred Nuckols, a local breeder who owned historic Hurstland Farm, offered to buy me a beer. About a half-hour later, after solving most of racing's problems, the talk turned to Old Friends, and I explained that we'd outgrown Afton and needed more space. To my surprise, Alfred was very receptive to the idea and offered a barn and several paddocks at Hurstland. The timing was perfect, and Alfred's hospitality allowed us to grow and grow and grow and grow.

A LIFE-CHANGING CLAUSE

Ever since he won the Kentucky Derby in 1997, Silver Charm has been my favorite athlete. When he left Three Chimneys Farm in Kentucky in 2004 bound for stud duty in Japan, I never expected him to return to the United States. But the foresight of Robert Lewis, his owner, was responsible for the Hall of Famer's return. Before allowing Silver Charm to stand at stud in Japan, Lewis insisted on a groundbreaking buy-back clause. It was a binding agreement that guaranteed his retirement to America when his stud career was over.

Ten years later, I got a call from Three Chimneys stallion manager Sandy Hatfield asking if we had room for a gray stallion who needed a home. I freaked out. Thanks to the Lewis family, Silver Charm received an all-expenses paid return (and ongoing endowment), and on Dec. 1, 2014, Silver Charm arrived at Old Friends. It was the first time I saw him in person, making it the most exciting day of my life. Robert Lewis was a true pioneer in racing and, thanks to his love for his champion, he made me the happiest man on the planet.

A CHANCE ENCOUNTER

Just a little while after Ruhlmann arrived at Old Friends, I ran into his U.S. trainer, Hall of Famer Bobby Frankel, outside the paddock at Saratoga. "Excuse me, Mr. Frankel, but my name's Michael and I have your great horse, Ruhlmann, at my farm." "That's nice," he said, and walked away.

Two days later, near the same spot, he tapped me on the shoulder. "Aren't you the guy with Ruhlmann?" "Yes, sir." He spent the next few minutes praising Ruhlmann. He was kind and friendly. More than a decade later, a few weeks after Frankel passed away in 2009, Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs, Bobby's business manager, called with the news that Bobby had left Old Friends some things in his will. Over the years, it amounted to about $300,000 and most of his trophies. His love for the horses inspired us to name our New York division after him.

CREATOR, SUNSHINE FOREVER AND THE JAPAN BBA

After it was discovered that 1986 Kentucky Derby winner and 1987 Horse of the Year Ferdinand died in a Japanese slaughterhouse, we decided to cooperate with the Japanese Bloodhorse Breeders' Association to repatriate American stallions after their breeding careers were over. After stumbling around for months, I contacted Emmanuel De Seroux, who was instrumental in selling many of the stallions overseas through his Narvick International bloodstock agency. As soon as he came on board, the process accelerated.

Within a few months, in November 2004, our first two stallions, Creator and Sunshine Forever, arrived. They were in great shape. Our eternal gratitude to Emmanuel and the gracious Japanese breeders who continue to donate these wonderful athletes to Old Friends.

RUHLMANN AND THE MOSS FACTOR

In 2004, Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs contacted Old Friends about retiring millionaire stakes winner Ruhlmann to Old Friends. He was owned by Jerry and Ann Moss, and his stallion career was over. It was a match made in horse heaven.

It was the first time that an influential member of the racing community believed that Old Friends was a legitimate home for retired horses. And, to steal a phrase from Casablanca, it was the beginning of a beautiful friendship. Jerry, Ann, and Dottie are our Hall of Fame trio. We continue to retire their horses and accept their friendship and financial generosity with humility and gratitude.

CONVERTED SKEPTIC

When I first got the idea for Old Friends, I was clueless. Some might say nothing's changed. But I did have one good plan, and that was to visit horse racing professionals who knew what they were doing. I started with former Kentucky Gov. Brereton C. Jones, owner of Airdrie Stud in Midway.

"Let me get this straight," he said, as he leaned back in his chair surrounded by win photos of his well-bred Thoroughbreds. "You're going to get these horses and you're not going to breed them, race them, or sell them?" "That's right." His eyes glazed over. He reached into his desk, pulled out his checkbook and wrote Old Friends a check for $5,000. "Good luck," he said, looking as if he hoped I'd disappear.

Now, he's donated a lot more money and, more importantly, we've retired several stallions that once stood at Airdrie, including Afternoon Deelites and You and I.

BYARS WAY

Many years ago, Dr. Doug Byars made one of his only mistakes in life. He donated $1,000 to Old Friends. That opened the door to a decade of Old Friends dependence on one of the finest human beings I've ever met.

The same day that he made the donation, I called him, asking if I could get his advice on a few things. "Come over at 5:30 and bring a six-pack of Sam Adams," he said. I did. We talked for nearly two hours.

Finally, I worked up my nerve and asked him if he would be our vet if I promised not to call him at 2 o'clock in the morning. He leaned back in his chair with his hands behind his head. "I'll only accept if you promise me one thing. That you will call me at 2 o'clock in the morning." I adored him and he adored Old Friends. I still miss his sardonic wisdom every day.

CHAMPIONSHIP LEVEL

In 2009, when Lane's End announced the retirement of 1988 Sprint champion Gulch, I called their office and left a message for Bill Farish saying that we'd love to have his great stallion at Old Friends. They concurred, and I was thrilled.

"Gulch has had a long and wonderful career here," Farish told the Blood-Horse. "We wanted to make sure that he was well taken care of in his retirement and we thought our nearby neighbor, Old Friends, would be a great place for him. He was a horse that was well known to the public having been through the Triple Crown and having been a top 2-year-old and a champion sprinter. He was a horse that people always wanted to see. Plus, he's kind of a ham, and he will enjoy the attention immensely."

He was absolutely correct. Over the years, thousands of fans, including jockey Angel Cordero Jr. and trainer LeRoy Jolley, came to Old Friends to take his photo and feed him carrots. Gulch had an Eclipse-winning racing life, a magnificent breeding career, and, his crowning achievement, a Grade 1 retirement.

He brought every person and horse associated with Old Friends to new heights. We can never repay him for all he did for us. But we tried.

WHATEVER IT TAKES

When Dream Chase Farm in Georgetown, Ky., not far from Midway, went on the market in 2006, I felt it would be the perfect place for Old Friends. Knowing none of the big banks would go for it, I called Jim Callaway at Whitaker Bank.

"Mr. Callaway, my name is Michael Blowen. I want to buy Dream Chase Farm for $1 million and I have no money," Jim laughed. "I have one favor. I'd like you and Mr. Whitaker to let me show you around our facility at Hurstland Farm. We're the biggest tourist attraction in Woodford County, and I want to bring Old Friends to Scott County."

Simultaneously, we had just received Taylor's Special from Hope for Horses, a group that found him wandering around in the woods in Washington state. He looked pretty rough. A few days later, Jim and Elmer Whitaker arrived for the tour. They looked extremely bored, and I was already thinking of alternative ways to buy the farm. We turned to Taylor's paddock. "Is that Taylor's Special?" asked Elmer. "Yes, he just got here," I replied, letting him know that Taylor was well on his way to recovery. "That horse cost me a fortune," said Elmer. "I own Fight Over and every time they raced in a Grade 1, we got beat by Taylor's Special."

Emboldened by the idea, and thinking they weren't going to loan us the money anyway, I blurted: "Think of it this way, Mr. Whitaker, if you loan us the money, I'll put Taylor up for collateral and you'll finally own yourself a good horse." He smiled. Two weeks later, after very generous assistance from my great friend John Ciccolo we got the loan and bought the farm.

AN ACADEMY AWARD FOR ANGIE

Decades ago, Frank Sinatra was on his last tour. As was his wont, he refused to do any interviews. So, the tour's sponsor, Chivas Regal, asked Angie Dickinson to go along to promote Frank. My assignment: Interview Angie over drinks at The Bostonian Hotel.

While the piano player performed a medley of her ex-husband Burt Bacharach's hits, she regaled me with Hollywood stories and her long friendship with Frank. We've been friends ever since.

When Bill Mooney won an Eclipse Award for his brilliant writing on Precisionist, he insisted that Old Friends attend the ceremony at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in California. We couldn't afford it, so Angie bought a table for 10. She not only attended, she handed out the 2007 Eclipse Award to Rags to Riches as champion 3-year-old filly.

When we got the chance to retire the horse Academy Award in 2010 at Old Friends, I asked her for the money. She instantly complied. When contacted by the Blood-Horse to explain her interest in the horse, she simply said, "Well, now, I finally have an Academy Award." And many, many old friends.

THE $100,000 MYSTERY

In 2011, about a month before the Kentucky Derby, two bankers and a lawyer showed up at the farm. While we made all of our designated payments on time, due to a filing error at the bank, we owed them a lot of money. Some board members believed we should keep it quiet. Not me. One thing I learned as a journalist is that trouble always follows a lack of transparency. Don't hide the truth.

So we wrote a press release explaining our dilemma. A few days later, a woman called and asked if she could visit the farm. When she arrived the next day, she explained that she and her husband liked what we were doing. After about an hour ride on the golf cart visiting the retirees, we sat down on the front porch of the office.

"Old Friends is in our will," she said. "But I asked my husband if we could donate something from our fund if I liked the place."

With that, she reached into her purse and wrote Old Friends a check for $100,000. There was only one catch. She, unfortunately, demanded anonymity. But she, literally, saved the farm.

AFTERCARE GOES MAINSTREAM

It's hard to put a precise date on when aftercare became an accepted part of a Thoroughbred's life. It didn't start for Old Friends until other groups like the TRF laid the groundwork and owners could see that, whatever the problems, the initial horses retired at Old Friends received the best health care imaginable. For me, it was the day years ago, when Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning approached me at their yearling sale and explained how much he appreciated what Old Friends was doing for these retirees.

One of the greatest gifts Old Friends ever received is currently resting in your hands. The Old Friends Daily Racing Form magazine was the brainchild of DRF's Mandy Minger and brought the evolving story of Thoroughbred aftercare to an ever-widening audience. Then the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) exploded on the scene, raising the bar and introducing a professional accreditation process that assures everyone that racing's retirees will end up at first-rate facilities. Somewhere along that long and winding road it all started to change.

A CLASSIC INTRODUCTION

I remember Sarava very well. I was one of the 103,222 spectators at Belmont Park assembled on that glorious afternoon in 2002 to root future Old Friends resident War Emblem home to a Triple Crown victory. Not so fast. Front-runner War Emblem stumbled out of the gate, losing all chance of winning.

But, as the field headed for home, Sarava rallied to beat Medaglia d'Oro to become the longest-priced winner in the 153-year history of the race, paying $142 to win. I ripped up my losing win tickets on War Emblem.

A decade later, bloodstock agent and former Midway mayor Tom Bozarth asked if we would be interested in retiring Sarava to Old Friends. Naturally, I was thrilled. Owner Gary Drake agreed to send him, and this dashing dark brown stallion became the first classic winner ever retired to Old Friends.

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

THE BAFFERT DONATION

When Game On Dude retired in 2014 with multiple Grade 1 victories, including three wins in the prestigious Santa Anita Handicap, and $6.5 million in earnings, it seemed that the whole world wanted him. Appeals came from many quarters to retrain him as an eventer; after all, with his intelligence and athleticism it seemed like he could make his mark in the show world. He also could have continued to race and, although he might not be at his peak, he could have easily increased his earnings.

His owners, including Bob Baffert and Joe Torre, decided to send him to us. Of course, we had the good fortune to have terrific representation advocating for Old Friends – Jill Baffert. After many phone calls back and forth with Bob (it was like being interrogated by Perry Mason), he agreed to send him to us. Now, Game On Dude enthusiastically meets his many fans, while sharing a paddock with his best pal, Little Mike.

VALIDATION

When Mandy Minger of Daily Racing Form called me in late 2014 to tell me that Old Friends was going to receive a special Eclipse Award for service to horse racing, I was speechless. Which, as those who know me best will attest, is an extremely rare occurrence. At first, I thought she might be joking. But she wasn't.

It was with humility and gratitude that, in January 2015, I accepted it on behalf of every fan, volunteer, employee and, especially, horse, who had ever stepped foot on Old Friends soil. The daily efforts cleaning stalls, checking on legs, delivering feed, and entertaining visitors all seemed to be reflected in that one moment standing before all the industry movers and shakers. After mumbling a few words that I don't really remember, I realized that brief moment in the spotlight indicated a ringing acceptance of aftercare and the affirmation that every one of our Thoroughbred athletes deserves, and has earned, each blade of bluegrass.

RIISING FROM THE ASHES

On a snowy day in January 2016, just before 7 a.m., Old Friends staff member Tammy was banging on the side door of the house. "Michael, Michael," she screamed. "The barn's on fire." James, Tammy's husband, had already moved Archie's Echo and Alphabet Soup from their stalls. They were safe.

However, as fire trucks came screaming up the driveway, the old tobacco barn was engulfed in flames. Within 20 minutes, it was gone. It was terrifying for us, but Archie and Alfie just munched on hay in adjoining paddocks, completely unconcerned.

A week later, Boyd Browning of Fasig-Tipton called to express his condolences and asked me if I knew his friend, the late John Hettinger, the noted New York breeder-owner and aftercare advocate. I did. John and I spent many a day on the screened-in porch of his Saratoga Springs home discussing what to do with washed-up racehorses. His favorite expression was "all my best friends have four legs."

Fasig-Tipton, through Blue Horse Charities, donated $50,000 for the new barn. The Scott County fire chief oversaw the construction, and Bob Baffert said that he'd never had a barn this nice.

FRIENDS IN NORTH DAKOTA

In the late afternoon on a fall Friday in 2019, I did three tours. I was tired, but happy. I had my Daily Racing Form, a can of Country Boy, and settled into my Adirondack chair facing Silver Charm's paddock, preparing for Saturday's simulcast. For a few minutes, I wasn't concentrating on how to raise enough money to pay the feed, hay, and assorted other bills that were due.

Just as I opened the Form, a car pulled up the driveway. This nice couple wanted to see Old Friends. They seemed very interested in seeing the farm and they couldn't come back the next day because they were leaving to go home to Fargo, N.D. Ever obliging, I offered a beer and the golf cart and the three of us took a quick spin around. After we finished, the gentlemen said he wanted to make a donation but forgot his checkbook. Fine, I really didn't care, and I'd heard the "forgotten checkbook" ruse many times before.

On the Monday after Thanksgiving, I went to the mailbox and found an envelope addressed from North Dakota. Inside, just a check. For $500,000. That's right. It's not a typo. $500,000. Mr. and Mrs. John Ballantyne from North Dakota. They fell in love with the farm, and we fell in love with them. The following Halloween they sent Little Silver Charm three bags of Oddfellow mints and Old Friends a check for $50,000. They've become great, generous friends. And made that Adirondack chair much more comfortable.

THE HOME TEAM FOR BREEDERS' CUP

In 1984, on a sunny Southern California morning in November, I was sitting on a comfortable chair at Hollywood Park waiting for the first race of the first Breeders' Cup to commence. I bet against Chief's Crown, the inaugural winner, even though the guy sitting next to me was from Boston as well and he owned him. In 2016, Old Friends began a multi-year partnership with Breeders' Cup and Maker's Mark. The collaboration of the greatest day of racing, the greatest bourbon, and all of Old Friends' great horses is a perfect match.

The Champions for Charity Zenyatta and Cigar bottles raised more than $150,000. Over the years, Old Friends has been home to more than 50 Breeders' Cup participants, including living winners Little Mike (2012 Breeders' Cup Turf), Amazombie (2011 Breeders' Cup Sprint), Work All Week (2014 Breeders' Cup Sprint), Stormy Liberal (2017 and 2018 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint), and Eldaafer (2009 Breeders' Cup Marathon). The idea that Breeders' Cup accepts and endorses aftercare as a legitimate way to expend their prestigious resources is a tremendous shot in the arm to all of us.

Thank You Old Friends!

New Old Friends facility at Ashton Grove.

ASHTON GROVE SENIOR LIVING

I always thought these retired Thoroughbreds would make great neighbors for everyone, especially seniors like myself. Longtime Old Friends supporters, breeders John and Bev Passerello, also thought so. When they moved into the beautiful Ashton Grove Senior Living facility in Georgetown, which was built on land that once was operated by Hill 'n' Dale Farm, they proposed that Ashton Grove make the 40-plus acres of greenspace available to Old Friends. And it wasn't just the land. There also was a beautiful barn and a lot of fencing.

In October 2020, after all their hard work and the cooperation of all the residents and caretakers at Ashton Grove, 16 Thoroughbred retirees and Winston II, a mini, moved in and immediately provided a lot of fun for their human counterparts.

Just after the farm was resettled with Old Friends retirees, including Magic Weisner and Bo's a Ten, John passed away, leaving Bev to carry on the legacy. The barn is named after John and Bev, and we are honored that the Passerellos considered us all their old friends.

THE YEAR OF LIVING DANGEROUSLY

You don't need me to tell everyone about the disastrous effects COVID-19 had all over the world. In our tiny speck of land at Old Friends, it might have been devastating. After all, we depend on visitors to fuel our entire operation. And, in 2020, we were only partially open for 14 weeks.

But, the light always seems to shine favorably on Old Friends. Through the dedicated, regular support of our fans, friends, donors, and the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, along with many others who believe these horses deserve everything we can provide, we made it through without missing a feeding, a trip to the vets, or a payroll. And it's all because that throughout the horrifying COVID-19 crisis, our supporters never wavered. Now that we're on the other side (I hope), it's great to greet all of our old and new visitors. It was pretty lonely for us and the horses. But the future looks bright.

FULL SPEED AHEAD

We're surrounded by change. New horses. New fence. New land. New donors. An Old Friends in Japan is opening this year, and we're expanding in New York. The waiting list keeps growing. The inspiration provided by our first retiree, Narrow Escape, and the gift of Creator and Sunshine Forever from our friends in Japan, and the arrival of Silver Charm due to the generosity of Bob and Beverly Lewis, allows us to contemplate our good fortune.

For some in racing, success is a pick six bonanza or a victory in the Kentucky Derby. For me, it's waking up every morning and looking out the window with Diane and seeing all of my heroes. Thank you.

What makes specialists special

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Breeders' Cup Sprint winner and Eclipse Award champion Amazombie at Old Friends.

By Cindy Grisolia

To the novice, horse racing probably looks all the same. Open the gate and go, go, go. Well, that's not the case.

Just as human athletes excel at, say, the shot put as opposed to the long jump, or 1,500-meter competitions as opposed to the 100-meter dash, equines, too, need to find their running niche – what best suits their conformation, physiology, personality, and heart.

With more than 250 horses in our care, Old Friends can offer up any number of shining examples of racing's "specialists."

SPRINTERS

GO SHORT

Sprinters like it fast and furious. They excel with speed. They can jump from the gate like a shot, travel well, and show a turn of foot. Sprint races are usually 5 to 7 furlongs (a furlong is an eighth of a mile), so the finish line comes pretty quickly. Typically, sprinters are compact, muscular, short-coupled horses with defined hindquarters that can generate immense bursts of power. Sprint races make up the majority of races offered daily at tracks across North America.

Old Friends top sprinters: Work All Week, Amazombie, and the mare Smokey Glacken, among others.

Work All Week and Amazombie both turned their sprint talents into Breeders' Cup and Eclipse Award gold.

Work All Week, the Illinois-bred son of City Zip, was the champion male sprinter of 2014 after capturing the 2014 Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Sprint. Work All Week is a two-time Illinois Horse of the Year. Amazombie, a late bloomer, captured the 2011 Breeders' Cup Sprint at the age of 5 and was subsequently named Eclipse champion sprinter.

ROUTERS

GO LONG

A route race is generally any race that is more than one mile. The Grade 1 Kentucky Derby is 1 1/4 miles, a true measure of stamina for horses early in their 3-year-old season. Horses that succeed at distance races are considered routers or stayers. Stayers are often leaner, lankier, and longer in their frame than sprinters, not unlike human long-distance runners.

Old Friends top routers: Silver Charm, Game On Dude, Alphabet Soup, Sarava, Birdstone, and Touch Gold, among many others.

Silver Charm won both the Kentucky Derby and the Grade 1 Preakness Stakes at 1 3/16 miles. He went on to capture the Group 1 Dubai World Cup at 1 1/4 miles and was voted into the Racing Hall of Fame.

Game On Dude holds the distinction of being the only horse to ever capture three runnings of the Grade 1 Santa Anita Handicap, and only the second horse in history to sweep California's three 1 1/4-mile Grade 1s in the same year – the Santa Anita Handicap, the Hollywood Gold Cup, and the Pacific Classic.

Alphabet Soup won the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Classic at 1 1/4 miles in 1996, besting the "invincible" Cigar.

Going even longer: Touch Gold, Sarava, and Birdstone all won the Grade 1 Belmont Stakes, the last leg of racing's Triple Crown and the longest at 1 1/2 miles. It's a grueling test and an outstanding feat for a 3-year-old. Only a small percent of horses ever race that far in their careers.

MARATHONERS

GO THE DISTANCE

Marathoners are essentially routers to the nth degree, competing in races of 1 1/2 miles to 1 3/4 miles.

Old Friends Marathoners: Rocketry and Eldaafer.

Rocketry proved he could not only go the distance, but do it quickly. In 2018, his banner 4-year-old season, he captured the 1 5/8-mile Temperence Hill Invitational Stakes at Belmont Park, besting the 98-year-old track record set by Man o' War. Rocketry set other track records before calling it quits, winning the Grade 2 Marathon Stakes at 1 3/4 miles in record time at Churchill Downs and the Grade 2 Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Stakes at 1 5/8 miles in record time at Keeneland.

Eldaafer won the 2010 Grade 3 Breeders' Cup Marathon at 1 3/4 miles at Churchill Downs.

GRASS RUNNERS

GO GREEN

Horses usually favor one surface or the other. Just as some runners shine at short or long distances, some horses are just better built for grass racing rather than racing on dirt. Taller bodies, wider, flatter hooves, and heavier conformation are a few of the characteristics that help point a horse toward the turf, where skimming over the surface allows them to better handle the grass.

Old Friends turf heroes: Zulu Alpha, Next Shares, Little Mike, Stormy Liberal, and The Pizza Man, among others.

Zulu Alpha won seven graded stakes. Next Shares scored a Grade 1 victory in the 2018 Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland. Little Mike earned victories in the 2012 Grade 1 Arlington Million and the 2012 Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Turf. Stormy Liberal took back-to-back runnings of the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2017 and 2018 and was voted the 2018 Eclipse Award as champion turf male. The Pizza Man took the 2015 Arlington Million and the 2016 Northern Dancer Turf Stakes, a Grade 1 race in Canada.

MULTITASKERS

GO ON EVERYTHING

Grass, dirt, synthetic, bed of nails – some horses just don't care, they just run.

Old Friends do-it-all guy: The late Einstein.

Throughout his career, Einstein accomplished what few horses have done: He earned graded stakes victories on three different track surfaces: The Grade 1 Turf Classic (on turf), the Grade 1 Clark Handicap (on dirt), and the Grade 1 Santa Anita Handicap (on synthetic). In 2009, were it not for a tough trip resulting in a third-place finish in the Grade 1 Stephen Foster Handicap, Einstein would have been the first to ever win Grade 1 races on all three surfaces in the same year.

These days, these specialists excel at something else altogether: retirement, which requires no distinct skills or conformation traits – just an endless loop of eat, sleep, play, repeat. In between they get loved on by fans, who remember them as something special indeed.

What love does to you

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

The mare Private Charm was rescued at age 20 and came to Old Friends to enjoy retirement at the same farm as her sire.

By Michael Blowen

When I was just betting horses, their lives were summed up by Beyer Speed Figures and assorted other numbers that crystallized their careers. The past performances are still a remarkable example of condensing each athlete's life into a digest of races, earnings, connections, age, breeding, and dozens of other factors available to handicappers. I still read Daily Racing Form with an enthusiasm that my grandmother brought to her daily Bible readings. Over the past 49 years, through spectacular wins and excruciating defeats, their lives could be reduced to abstractions. Not anymore.

Old Friends has taught me that each of these horses, whether a stakes winner or an old claimer, has an individual personality. Some I like. Some I respect. Some I tolerate. And some I love. My latest love is Private Charm. She had only seven starts, all at Evangeline Downs in 2006 with two wins and one second and lifetime earnings of $27,120. On July 28, 2006, she got a DNF (did not finish). Subsequently, she became a broodmare with offspring that mirrored her dismal racing career. But, when you're in love, none of that matters.

In mid-2021, I got a call from Shirley Ford, a longtime supporter from Texas. She told me about a daughter of Silver Charm who was in a precarious situation and she, and many others, were mounting a campaign to give the 20-year-old a dignified retirement. It meant we would have to leapfrog her over several other deserving candidates and, as far as I'm concerned, nepotism matters – especially when my favorite horse of all time, Silver Charm, is involved.

Several weeks later, after some rest and relaxation, she arrived at Old Friends, looking a little rugged. But she was, and is, the spitting image of her sire. And, after all she'd been through, she was extraordinarily kind and generous with her soulful brown eyes and her beautiful way of nuzzling my chest. There I go again. But that's what love does to you.

After a trip to the veterinary clinic of Rood and Riddle, where she was successfully operated on for a sinus infection by Dr. Scott Morrison, she settled in. And, even with a dozen or so staples looking like a zipper down her nose, she was beautiful. Dr. Morrison, admitting that he didn't remember the last time he performed surgery on a 20-year-old barren mare with a dismal track record, said she was a marvelous patient.

Now, Private Charm is out in a paddock with Groundshaker, the last Thoroughbred owned and bred by Penny Chenery, the late owner of Secretariat and a continuing inspiration to Old Friends. Like her sire, Private Charm has a quiet confidence that does not require outward signs of dominance like her paddock mate. She goes about her business with subtle confidence. At dusk, when the sun's last rays filter through her gorgeous white mane and tail reflect off her beautiful body . . . oh, never mind. That's what love does to you.

I'm forever grateful to you for supporting us and helping Private Charm enjoy her forever home.

Tales from the tours

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Tour groups at Old Friends are a source of much needed revenue, and often provide some funny episodes and tales.

By Cynthia Grisolia

Tourists say – and sometimes do – the darnedest things. And, on occasion, so do some of our steadfast volunteer tour guides, who are the backbone of our organization.

Our tour guides help us welcome, educate, and entertain as many as 20,000 visitors annually – at least in non-pandemic times – by conducting our regularly scheduled daily tours and private appointments. Many of our guides have been with Old Friends from our early days, so we thought with that many excursions behind them they must have a few memorable encounters to share.

Here are some of their favorites.

Moving moments

“Once, I had a tour with a mother and daughter who were from New York,” remembers guide Jane McClaren. “The mother, a slight woman with exuberant energy, flitted around the farm like a hummingbird, lighting on one horse after the other. When we got to the barn, it was time for Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Alphabet Soup and his donkey pal, Gorgeous George, to get turned out for the evening. At that point, the mom began to make a video of the tour for her husband, who was still in New York. She put him on speaker phone, and when George sauntered out following his much bigger pal, I could hear her husband gushing, ‘How sweet, how adorable!’ It was so sweet. What a family!”

► “During one particular tour, there was one man who kept asking when or if we were going to see Genuine Reward, the son of Kentucky Derby winner Genuine Risk,” says guide Joyce Patci. “One of her only surviving foals, Genuine Reward was retired to Old Friends until he passed in 2018. I assured the man that we would see him. At the time, Genuine Reward was still in the old tobacco barn. When we finally stood in front of his stall, I pointed him out to the gentleman. With tears in his eyes, he said his father was R.T. Blackburn, and he had delivered Genuine Reward at Shawnee Farm. It was so poignant. I will never forget that moment.”

The best thing for the inside of a man – or woman – is the outside of a horse. That’s a maxim tour guide Lisa Wood proved true a few years ago.

► “I had a touring group of 20 retirees that ranged in age from 60 to their late 80s,” Wood recalls. “Old Friends was the last stop on their week-long visit to Kentucky and they were interested in the farm and eager to meet the Old Friends horses.

Dear Fellow Horsemen,

The National HBPA, which represents caring owners and trainers across North America, strongly advocates respect for the dignity and the welfare of horses of all breeds. We are here to embolden, foster and provide education regarding responsible ownership and management that will reduce the number of unwanted racehorses. We passionately support the development and enhancement of off-the-track Thoroughbred (OTTB) retirement facilities and adoption groups, along with programs at affiliated racetracks providing for the aftercare of our horses when their racing careers are over.

We also believe that Old Friends and the work done by Michael Blowen and his staff provide a showcase for the horse racing industry's commitment to our horses after their racing days are behind them. Additionally, we understand the magazine will play an important role in helping reach out and sustain much needed industry funding to support all of the operations at Old Friends.

The Old Friends magazine is an extremely important marketing tool for stimulating positive public awareness of the tireless efforts being put forth daily by our entire Thoroughbred industry, as well as the entire Old Friends team's commitment to ensuring that all of our Thoroughbreds, not just the graded stakes-winning stars, are properly taken care of upon retirement.

I would ask each of you, as affiliates and members of the National HBPA, to please make a copy of this magazine available to as many owners, trainers, breeders and board members as you possibly can and show your support for Old Friends. The importance of aftercare facilities and the take-home message that the productivity of a Thoroughbred does not have to end at the track is the two-part message we all need to continue delivering in order to stop the term unWanted horse.

Please join the National HBPA in support of our Old Friends.

Sincerely,

Eric J. Hamelback

"As we approached two of our popular geldings, Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Amazombie and his paddock mate, Rapid Redux, who holds the North American record for consecutive races won [22], I explained that they were very competitive about carrots, so it would be best to split into two teams.

"A small group fed treats to Amazombie while the larger group circled Rapid Redux. In the middle of the group, I saw a tiny woman face to face with him cautiously holding a carrot in her palm. Miriam was 82 and had never been near a horse. Cautiously, she gave Rapid his carrot and then let out a joyous school-girl giggle. She turned and looked at all of us, beaming. And then we heard, 'Darn this phone. I hit the wrong button and didn't get a video. Miriam, you've got to do it again.'

"Miriam gave Rapid four more carrots before the video was a success. Before leaving, Miriam gently touched Rapid's nose and told him he was a good boy. She then touched my arm and said, 'I feel wonderful! It was truly amazing.'"

Horse antics

Grade 1 winner Ogygian, who was one of Old Friends's flagship stallions, "had a hatred of peppermints," tour guide Beth Shannon says. "Being a crafty old soul, he could detect the smell of a mint in time to refuse it, but if he happened to get one into his mouth, it would instantly be propelled to the ground. He regarded being offered a peppermint as a mortal offense.

"But during a tour one summer afternoon, retiree Bull Inthe Heather, who was in the paddock across the way, was being treated to some peppermints and suddenly I heard a nicker behind me. I was startled to see Ogygian straining over his fence and gazing at the peppermint with longing. 'This isn't a carrot,' I told him, putting the mint to his nostril to prove it. To my amazement, he took it!

"As I began telling visitors what a rare thing they had just witnessed, Ogygian pulled his head inside the fence, dropped the offending candy in the dirt, and stood looking at us pointedly. He hadn't wanted the peppermint at all. He only wanted what was Bull's, and more so, he wanted our undivided attention for himself. The maneuver was entirely successful."

► "I had a small private tour one day, and we were just finishing up with Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm," says guide Marc Craft. "As always, I had been talking about how intelligent he is – little did I know he was about to prove it.

"We moved on to the next paddock, with Grade 1 winner Special Ring and Seabiscuit star Popcorn Deelites, but Silver Charm followed us. Special Ring immediately went into his famous act: flipping his upper lip to display his tattoo to get a carrot as a reward.

"While I was discussing horse-lip tattoos and Special Ring continued showing his, Silver Charm clearly caught on fast, and started showing us his tattoo hoping for more carrots. 'See, I told you he was a smart,' I joked. Fortunately, we still had a few shaved carrots left."

Celeb encounters

Joyce Patci recalls a brush with fame on one of her tours.

"One time I had a group just in front of Silver Charm's paddock. Out of the corner of my eye, I spot a man walk up to Charm and grab his halter – Charm hates that, and, as a rule we discourage guests from doing that to any horse. So, I start shifting into 'Responsible Tour-Guide Mode,' and just as I'm about to stop him, I realize . . . hey, the guy is Bob Baffert, who trained Silver Charm. 'Hey everybody, here's Bob Baffert!' I shouted. The group immediately turned into a pack of paparazzi!"

We Salute Old Friends & All Who Support Retired Racehorses

WEST POINT
THOROUGHBREDS

Faux pas

"It was a beautiful day, and I was doing a tour during spring break week," guide Tom Beatty says. "As we walked up to Sun King's paddock, one family on the tour was very impressed with the horse's friendly manner and were overly generous in feeding him carrots. Just then another person in the tour group asked, 'Hey, Sun King, would you like more carrots?'"

"Always looking to add something humorous, I said, 'Asking a horse if he wants more carrots is like asking a roofing contractor if you need a new roof.' Then I quickly added, 'I hope no one here is a roofing contractor.'"

"At that moment, I looked over and a gentleman on the tour unzipped his jacket to reveal a T-shirt emblazoned with a logo for A-I Roofing. Everyone got a good laugh out of the T-shirt – and my embarrassment."

► "I like to know a little about our guests, and I always ask people where they are from," tour guide Steve Pallardy says. "While I have lived in Lexington since 1982, I always mention that I am originally from Chicago, and that I'm a Chicago Cubs fan."

"My tours usually start with the two paddocks right behind the visitor's center, one was home to Nicanor, Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro's full brother, the other to Belmont Stakes winner Sarava. Nicanor is always pleasant. Sarava, on the other hand, is inclined to chew on a guest or two."

"This group had about 20 people, and while they were all oohing and aahing over Nicanor, one gentleman, who was wearing a shirt and hat sporting the logo of Cubs rival St. Louis Cardinals, backed up to Sarava's paddock. And Sarava did what he does best, he bit the Cardinals fan right on the shoulder. I should have been concerned, but all I could think to say was, 'Well, there is someone else who doesn't like the Cardinals.'"

"The man failed to see the humor, and I wanted to crawl into a proverbial hole."

Just for laughs

"On one tour I was asked why some horses got pieces of carrots and others got shredded carrots," Carol Ware says. "In the past, I have worked in nursing homes, so I tried to compare shredded carrots to serving applesauce instead of apples to the elderly, as it's much easier to eat and digest. About 20 minutes later, an elderly lady in the group emphatically asked, 'Now, explain it again, why are you feeding these horses applesauce?' It just made me laugh."

► "Quite some time ago, we had a promotion hosting a Girl Scout group. They took part in several activities and then took a short tour," media coordinator Cindy Grisolia recalls. "The girls were all around 7 or 8 years old and really adorable. They were accompanied by a few of the moms and a troop leader."

"At the time, we had several stallions in the paddocks behind the visitor's center, and as we were making our way back, one of the stallions stopped to urinate. One of the little girls quickly noticed a new, uh, part of the horse she hadn't seen before, and inquired, 'Hey, does that horse have five legs?'"

"The moms' faces all went white, and, for a second, there was a stunning silence. Before I could weigh in, one of the other little girls just brushed it off. 'No,' she said nonchalantly, 'he's a boy.'"

"Satisfied, they just walked on. Crisis averted; moms exhaled."

Little Silver Charm's guide for successful aging

By Little Silver Charm

It's difficult for people to believe that I am the oldest horse at Old Friends. "How can that be?" they exclaim. "It can't be true. You're younger than springtime!"

But it is true. I am even older than my close friend You and I, and as you know, he's older than dirt, excuse the expression.

So many of my friends and fans clamor to know how I maintain my youthful appearance and attitude. Well, I have a few suggestions, not rules exactly, more like guidelines.

- Do nothing as much as possible. This is difficult for me because of my many responsibilities and commitments (see Note #1 below). But no matter how busy I may be, I try to schedule some "do nothing" time every day. As my mentor and role model Michael says, "In the end it's not what you do, but what you don't do."

- I believe that as you age, intensive exercise is overrated and unnecessary, and possibly dangerous. However, a little walking and some regular stretching is essential to keep body and mind tuned and ready for whatever the day may bring.

- Set aside time each day for daydreaming. Let your mind wander. You may be surprised at the odd ideas that bubble up from your unconscious. But – and this is something I learned from observing Michael – don't feel obligated to share your daydreams with anyone who'll listen. Keep some things to yourself.

- Eat as often as possible. You never know where your next meal is coming from.

- Bad hair days happen. Deal with it.

- Avoid facelifts, tune-ups, or cosmetic surgery of any kind (see Note #2 below). Once you start down that road, there's no telling where it will lead.

- As the wise old saying goes, make new friends but keep the old, one is silver the other gold. In my personal case, one friend is Silver Charm, the other is Touch Gold. But if you aren't close to any celebrities, it's probably nice to have ordinary, run-of-the-mill friends you can fall back on.

- Don't act as though you're the center of the universe. Remember, it's not about you. It's about me.

Note #1 – I fill multiple roles at Old Friends – spokes-horse, tour director, retirement adviser, landscape consultant, author, liaison with the City of Georgetown – I could go on, but you get the idea. I'm a busy little horse.

Note #2 – This does not apply to goats.

The catbird seat

By Selena

I am Selena. I am queen of all I survey, which happens to be the front desk in the Old Friends office and gift shop.

My job is to assist with checking in visitors, ringing up sales, and other tasks too numerous to mention. I don't know what Old Friends would do without me.

I have been trying to learn to work the cash register. One day I rang up a $23,625 sale. It was a mistake. Fortunately for me, my credit card was declined. I like to help with emails too, especially when they're not ready to send. It makes life exciting.

I share the office with three other cats. Buddy, a ginger-and-white neutered tom, is our official greeter. Lucy, a formerly feral tortoiseshell, is a very big girl, 25 pounds, which seems to fascinate visitors. Bobby's Kitten, named for one of Ken Ramsey's Thoroughbreds, is a very handsome black tomcat manqué. People tend to confuse us, but I am far more beautiful. Everybody tells me so.

It's actually easy to tell me and Bobby apart, as long as I'm wearing one of my many collars. I have one for every holiday and occasion. I am very fashion-conscious.

I wasn't always into fashion. I didn't have a collar when I found my way to Old Friends one autumn night several years ago. The moon was full and surrounded by an unusual, very dramatic hazy ring. That's why they named me Selena, goddess of the moon.

I had taken refuge in Ogygian's run-in shed. I was cold and hungry and I was complaining at the top of my lungs. I scared Ogygian. I didn't mean to. Imagine, a tiny cat frightening a Thoroughbred stallion. But I was making a lot of noise. Beth Shannon, Ogygian's best friend, lured me out of his paddock with food.

I can't remember what my life was like before I came to Old Friends. I think I must have endured a lot of trauma. The veterinarian said I was very underweight. My body was covered with bites. And my little paws were bloody.

Things have improved since then, obviously. I am very happy to have a good home with loving friends and the opportunity to meet so many admirers. I never dreamed that I would have such a responsible job, but after everything I've been through, I think I can handle it.

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Here I am with my pretty pink collar. They say I'm very photogenic, but you be the judge.

Saying goodbye

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

By Mary Simon

Old Friends said goodbye to 13 of its cherished denizens in 2021 and early 2022. Following is a brief rundown of who – and what – we lost.

Affirmed Success

B., g., 1994-2022, by Affirmed—Towering Success, by Irish Tower

They don't make them like Affirmed Success anymore. He was rugged, tough, game, and consistent – and above all, fast. How fast and consistent? In 42 career starts, he ran a triple-digit Beyer Speed Figure 38 times, a truly remarkable feat.

By the great Triple Crown winner Affirmed, Affirmed Success was bred and raced by Al Fried Jr., and he compiled an enviable record while competing in top company on the New York circuit for seven years. He won 17 times, 10 in stakes races, including the Grade 1 Cigar Mile Handicap, Carter Handicap, and Vosburgh Stakes, and was second or third in 14 other stakes. Overall, he was first, second, or third in 33 of 42 starts, earning $2.3 million.

When retired from racing, he initially served in the Parade of Breeds at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington before moving to Old Friends in September of 2007. He was one of the longest tenured residents ever at Old Friends. He will be missed.

Afleet Accompli

B., g., 2011-2021, by Afleet Alex—Competition, by Dixie Union

Afleet Accompli was Old Friends's second Puerto Rican ex-pat, following Winning Dubai. The two were similar – both hard-knockers on the island nation who survived Hurricane Maria, and who left us too soon – each from a neurological disorder.

A $100,000 yearling, Afleet Accompli once looked to have a bright future. Instead, Afleet Alex's son became a blue-collar guy, churning out 14 wins in 63 starts, mostly in Puerto Rico, and banking $196,310 before being stopped by a torn suspensory. He came to Old Friends in 2020 through Caribbean Thoroughbred Aftercare to spend a happy final year of what should have been a much longer life.

Albert the Great

B., h., 1997-2021, by Go for Gin—Bright Feather, by Fappiano

He was that rarest of racehorses, a flamboyant front-runner with the stamina of a true stayer and the heart of a champion. Albert the Great was a slow developer who evolved into a top-tier racehorse with five major victories for owner Tracy Farmer, including the Grade 1 Jockey Club Gold Cup. He would earn $3,012,490 on Farmer's $85,000 yearling investment before his 2002 retirement to stud at Three Chimneys Farm.

When his modestly successful stud career ended, the stallion with matinee idol looks came to Old Friends and quickly became a favorite. In late 2021, when it became clear that he suffered from an untreatable sinus infection, we said goodbye to Albert, who is survived here by his Grade 1-winning son Nobiz Like Shobiz.

Alphabet Soup

Gr. or ro., h., 1991-2022, by Cozzene—Illiterate, by Arts and Letters

Perhaps no loss hit harder than that of Alphabet Soup. Since 2015, the beautiful white stallion had been a marquee resident, noted for his amiable disposition and soulful dark eyes. A top-tier racehorse for Georgia Ridder during the 1990s, on his biggest afternoon he set a Woodbine track record for 1 1/4 miles in taking the 1996 Breeders' Cup Classic over 11 Grade/Group 1 winners. Soup's quiet demeanor belied the fierce competitive fire that burned within. "This little horse will absolutely lay his body down," trainer David Hofmans once said.

The $2,990,270-earner retired in 1998 to co-owner Frank Stronach's Adena Springs in Kentucky, where he would sire many of his more than 50 stakes winners before pensioning to Old Friends in 2015. In recent years – and in a rarity for a stallion – Soup acquired a paddock buddy in mini-donkey Gorgeous George, who became his inseparable companion.

Retirement was good but not always easy for this sweetest of stallions. Soup survived melanoma cancer in 2017 before losing a battle to kidney disease on Jan. 28, 2022.

Capture the Power

B., g., 2007-2021, by Empire Maker—La Danielle, by Danehill

Little known but wellloved in Old Friends's egalitarian world, Capture the Power had a backstory steeped in greatness. He was by renowned racehorse and sire Empire Maker and bred by Hall of Fame trainer Robert Frankel. But it wasn't in the stars for the bay to make it big on the track; in fact, he ran but once – in a $12,500 maiden claimer – and was well beaten.

After that abbreviated career, he went into private ownership. When no longer rideable, Capture the Power was donated to Old Friends, where he resided until his passing.

Discreet Hero

Dk. b. or br., g., 1998-2021, by Honour and Glory—Tapstress, by Desert Wine

Physically, Discreet Hero was a dead-ringer for his accomplished sire, Honour and Glory, right down to the distinctive star and crooked

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

The late Alphabet Soup, winner of the 1996 Breeders' Cup Classic, at Old Friends in 2016.

snip on his handsome face. He was a $150,000 yearling who would win 13 races, seven stakes, and $681,591.

Retired in 2005, Hero dropped off the radar until arriving at Old Friends several years later. Kind with two-legged visitors, he established himself as an alpha male among fellow geldings, a natural leader and sometime troublemaker. Before his passing in November 2021, he spent happy, lazy days in the company of champion Work All Week, Grade 1 winner The Pizza Man, and his best friend forever, Cappuccino Kid.

Elusive Honey

Dk. b. or br., m., 2000-2021, by Elusive Quality—Honey Sipper, by Drone

She was big, beautiful, and stately as a queen. A quality sprinter on dirt and grass, Elusive Honey produced eight foals – each destined for the winner's circle, including one stakes winner. Fertility eventually became an issue, so in 2017 Dr. Bryan Waldrige facilitated Honey's transfer here to join the "Old Girlfriends." When colic struck her down on June 6, 2021, Elusive Honey left behind a farm staff who loved her and a pasturemate in Miss Du Bois who missed her.

Hay Jude

B., m., 1995-2021, by Wavering Monarch—Double Norm, by Relaunch

Old Friends lost another "Old Girlfriend" when 26-year-old Hay Jude succumbed to a heart attack. The Illinois-bred daughter of Wavering Monarch had been a hard-trying runner, winning 5 of 30 starts while never leaving her home state. As a broodmare, her first two starters were by little-known, non-winning stallions – yet both became major racetrack stars – Little Nick, a stakes winner of $500,000; and near-champion, $3.5 million-earner, and current Old Friends resident Little Mike. Like her best son, she was pensioned here in 2016.

Hogy

Dk. b. or br., g., 2009-2021, by Offlee Wild—Floy, by Petionville

We wish we'd had him longer. On the track, Hogy had been a fan favorite for good reason. A sprinter with record-setting speed, he showcased his talent through nine seasons . . . a gritty battler whose 19 victories included nine stakes at nine racetracks on dirt and grass. Michael Hui and trainer Michael Maker claimed Hogy as an 8-year-old for $80,000 in 2017, a gamble that paid off. The gelding captured the $400,000 Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint and a year later proved he could still handle graded company in winning the Grade 3 Canadian Turf Stakes. With earnings of $1.3 million – $443,455 of that for Hui – Hogy retired in 2019 to Old Friends, where he spent two years enjoying pasture time with West Coast star Soi Phet. Ironically, the warrior who had survived so many racetrack battles was lost due to a paddock injury in August 2021.

Northern Stone

B., g., 1992-2021, by Stonehearted—Judy's Tony, by Etony

A long-time "Friend" was lost when Northern Stone passed just shy of his "official" 30th birthday. "Rocky," as he would fondly be known, ground it out the hard way during his racing days, earning $54,527 mostly in claiming company. It took 19 tries to win his maiden, and in 27 starts for as low as $4,000 he was never claimed – most observers seeming to recognize that racing wasn't his strong suit.

Rocky was donated to Old Friends in 2009 by owners John and Kathy Day. Here, the kindly soul spent the final years of his life with several companions, most recently Easy Grades.

Popcorn Deelites

B., g., 1998-2022, by Afternoon Deelites—Turquoise Gal, by Navajo

A most heart-breaking loss came when colic claimed Popcorn Deelites in early 2022. Pop was our movie star, a quirky fellow noted for his humorous fence-side antics alongside Special Ring. While Ring was a multiple Grade 1 winner, Pop had ended his blue-collar career as a lowly claimer. His biggest moment came in 2003, when he took time off to star in the movie "Seabiscuit," based on Laura Hillenbrand's best-selling book about the 1930s superstar.

A plain chocolate bay, Pop bore a resemblance to Seabiscuit, despite carrying none of that champion's blood (but, ironically, two strains of the Seabiscuit's great rival War Admiral). He was calm and mannerly, thus, a perfect choice for gate/racing scenes, including the dramatic match in which he "defeated" War Admiral.

In 2005, Pop became an early Old Friends resident. Paired for the past decade with Ring, the pals entertained visitors with their now-famous lip-flipping act in quest of carrots. Besides Ring, Pop is survived by his sire and Old Friends retiree, Afternoon Deelites.

Slim Shadey (GB)

Dk. b. or br., g., 2008-2021, by Val Royal—Vino Veritas, by Chief's Crown

Slim Shadey's career traveled a perfect arc. As a youngster in England, he won 1 of 11 starts. Later, in America, he developed into a turf star with multiple graded victories. But time took its inevitable toll. At 10, the tough campaigner was claimed for $62,500 by Michael Hui and trainer Mike Maker, the same pair who had haltered Old Friends's late Hogy and current resident Zulu Alpha. Unlike those two, Shadey would not prove a lucrative claim. Even so, when no longer competitive, in 2019 the gelding came in for a soft landing at Old Friends. Sadly, the nearly black millionaire did not have a long retirement. In April 2021, he lost his life after suffering a post-anesthesia fracture following colic surgery.

Winning Dubai

Gr. or ro., g., 2009-2021, by E Dubai—Winning Bidder, by Private Account

When Hurricane Maria destroyed much of Puerto Rico in 2017, Winning Dubai was one of many horses stranded without food or water at Camarero Racetrack, where he had started 96 times. The Kentucky-bred, once a $3,700 yearling, was a career claimer in his adopted land, grinding out 22 wins and earning $105,984. Remarkably, his 10 victories in 2012 tied him for first in North America as the year's winningest runner.

The gray gelding was eventually rescued, and, through Caribbean Thoroughbred Aftercare came to Old Friends in 2018. He arrived with grapefruit-sized ankles . . . but with the indomitable spirit that had carried him to so many triumphs intact. Dubai spent 3 1/2 years on well-deserved pasture rest before a neurological disorder ended his life.

What JoAnn and Mark Pepper and their band of intelligent, invaluable volunteers have done with Old Friends at Cabin Creek: The Bobby Frankel Division in Greenfield Center, N.Y., is nothing short of remarkable.

The facility, built nearly single-handedly by Mark, is a picture postcard – a Shangri-La – of Thoroughbred retirement. Home to America's lovable loser Zippy Chippy, whose motto is "Winners don't always finish first," and two-time Whitney victor Commentator, Cabin Creek has done things so well I have to visit to pick up pointers on how to improve our facility in Kentucky.

Over the years, the Peppers have shown great faith in the Old Friends concept. In the beginning, before the current surge in support from New York owners and breeders and some great fundraising during the Saratoga meet, donations were hard to come by. However, with the unerring faith of Vivien Malloy, Jack Knowlton of Sackatoga Stables, Terry Finley of West Point Thoroughbreds, the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, and Mike Repole, who allowed us to retire Cool N Collective, a great son of Ruhlmann, Cabin Creek has prospered.

Every one of its retirees has had a great story. From King Congie's unwavering support from West Point, his original owners, when he found himself in a dangerous situation, to late Travers Stakes winner Will's Way, JoAnn treats them all the same.

Visitors who have never been to a horse race mingle with savvy trainers, owners, and jockeys during tours that are both entertaining and enlightening.

And, while it might take some twisting and turning through the back roads of rural Saratoga County, I've never met one person who said it wasn't worth the trip. It's a tribute to the Peppers, the Saratoga community, and all of our great retirees.

The horses always look great. And that's the most important thing. Cabin Creek is located in Greenfield Center, N.Y., just 10 minutes from Saratoga Racecourse.

Tour availability is subject to New York State Public Health COVID-19 gathering guidelines and limitations. For information and current tour information, call Cabin Creek at (518) 698-2377.

Our Gift Shop

By Selena the Cat, Manager

When you purchase anything in the Old Friends gift shop, you can be sure that it is of the highest quality and in the best of taste. That's because, as chief buyer and manager, I personally choose each and every item before awarding it the coveted Selena Seal of Approval.

In addition to buying, I have many gift shop-related tasks: flower arranging, creating attractive displays of our merchandise, quality control of our food items, knocking things on the floor to test their durability, and making sure that each and every T-shirt includes one or two black cat hairs from my personal collection.

Jewelry is my passion. As you may know, I am dedicated to bling, and I have personally selected a variety of appropriate horse-related items to add to the stuff we carry. I'm also very literary. We have many horse books in the shop and now, thanks to me, we have that international best-seller "Crafting with Cat Hair" and, my personal favorite, "All Black Cats Are Not Alike."

My days are so full, what with presiding over the front desk, greeting our visitors, bird-watching, stretching, snacking and, of course, napping. I also try to keep the other cats – Buddy, Lucy, and Bobby – from messing with the merchandise, a job that is easier said than done.

But despite how busy I am with day-to-day tasks, I am always looking to the future. I recently supervised the expansion of the Old Friends online store. You, or your personal shopper, can browse my personally selected favorites chosen expressly for the discriminating consumer. I really think I could become an Internet cat sensation if some of my human subjects would focus on what's important.

Birdstone

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

In the spring of 2004, a plain bay colt with not a white hair on him became the horse America loved to hate. Barely 15 hands and 900 pounds at the time, the late Marylou Whitney's homebred Birdstone shocked a roaring crowd into silence when, at 36-1, he ran down heavily favored Smarty Jones in the Belmont Stakes to deny him a Triple Crown sweep. Moments later in the winner's circle, trainer Nick Zito and jockey Edgar Prado found themselves in an unusual place – apologizing for their victory and ending Smarty's bid for destiny.

Despite that moment of infamy, Birdstone was a good one in every sense. The son of 1996 Kentucky Derby winner Grindstone and future Broodmare of the Year Dear Birdie snagged the 2003 Champagne Stakes (G1) and 2004 Travers (G1) in addition to that memorable Belmont, and banked $1,575,600 before a bone chip stopped him after his ninth start.

At Gainesway Farm in Lexington, Ky., Birdstone's initial $10,000 fee looked like an absolute steal when his first crop reached the races and included 2009 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner Mine That Bird, 2009 Eclipse Award 3-year-old male champion Summer Bird, and three additional North American graded stakes winners.

Birdstone never replicated that gangbuster debut crop but became a useful sire whose offspring have since earned some $30 million. The sweet-natured stallion was pensioned to Old Friends in August of 2020.

– MARY SIMON

Michael says: We are so grateful to John Hendrickson for allowing Old Friends to care for Birdstone in his post-breeding career. He's a living tribute to Marylou Whitney, and we plan to carry on her great contributions to the aftercare of both humans and horses. Birdstone had a great life at Gainesway, and we plan to continue that tradition at Old Friends."

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL BLOWEN

Like everyone else in America, I was desperately hoping that Smarty Jones would win the 2004 Belmont to win the Triple Crown. Additionally, Stewart Elliott, his jockey, came up, like I did, through the claiming ranks at Suffolk Downs. But it wasn't to be. A son of Grindstone came hurtling down the long Belmont stretch, passing Smarty and sucking every last bit of air from the Belmont grandstand. His owner, the eternally classy Marylou Whitney, was apologetic in the post-winner's circle interview. But she had nothing to be sorry about. Birdstone would go on to win the Travers, confirming his competitive greatness. After he was winding down his post-racing career, I started to make inquiries about possibly retiring him to Old Friends. I even had the audacity to drop a subtle hint to John Hendrickson and Mrs. Whitney the last time I saw them at an event at the Hall of Fame. Enter the Passarellos. Jon and Bev are longtime breeders with strong connections to Gainesway and Neil Howard. When I inquired about Birdstone's diminishing stallion career, Bev went to work, extolling, or should I say exaggerating, all of the virtues of retiring a stallion to Old Friends. Buoyed by her gritty enthusiasm, I sent a note to Mr. Hendrickson. Within a few months, Birdstone arrived at Old Friends. A few weeks after his arrival, we were contacted by a very nice woman from Cady Hill, the estate in Saratoga Springs. She explained how happy John Hendrickson was with his decision to send Birdstone to Old Friends. He couldn't be as happy as we are to have Birdstone. And, to make it even better, he's our vet's – Dr. Bryan Walldridge – favorite horse and he is supported by a very generous stipend. He may even help us get Smarty here for a rematch.

Game On Dude

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Game On Dude had 34 starts over the course of five racing seasons and won nearly half of them, so there are plenty of memories to take away from his career, but for me, nothing was better than when Game On Dude won the Santa Anita Handicap in 2014 to become the first horse to win that storied race three times.

Game On Dude was clearly in the twilight of his career at that point. He was 7 and had lost three straight races, beginning with a crushing loss in the 2013 Breeders' Cup Classic that cost him titles as champion older horse and Horse of the Year, awards for which he was the front-runner entering that day.

Going back to the 2012 Californian, Game On Dude had been favored in 14 straight races and was odds-on in seven of those races. But having lost three straight, and with Mucho Macho Man and Will Take Charge – the one-two finishers from the previous fall's Breeders' Cup Classic – in the Big Cap, Game On Dude was the distant third choice at 7-2.

But the old boy reached back for one last hurrah. He used his wicked speed, the kind he could carry a distance, to run his rivals off their feet – six furlongs in 1:09.39, a mile in 1:32.57. And he kept on going. It might have been his finest race.

– JAY PRIVMAN

Michael says: A few days after Bob Baffert decided to send Game On Dude to Old Friends, we received a wonderful card from Jill. "He is going to steal your heart," it read. He has ... in spades. And he came to us in exceptional condition. He is the kindest, warmest, friendliest Thoroughbred who's ever called Old Friends home.

HORSE TALK

JILL BAFFERT, WIFE OF TRAINER BOB BAFFERT

Game On Dude brought so much joy to our lives, not only with his dazzling performances on the track, but he is one of the kindest, most loving, and noble horses I've ever been around. Although I knew it was time for him to move on to the next chapter of his life, I wasn't ready to let him go. None of us were. There were many wonderful options to consider in deciding where Dude would live out his retirement, but ultimately we knew he would be happiest surrounded by many people who would give him the same love and attention he had come to know. We are grateful to Old Friends – to the volunteers who selflessly give their time and energy, to the fans who come by the busload to honor their heroes, and to everyone who makes it possible for these beautiful animals to live their lives with dignity and respect.

Little Mike

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Little Mike is the boss. Just ask Game On Dude.

Dude and Mike are paddock mates, a great pairing for visitors, who get the opportunity see the collective earners of more than $10 million and 21 graded stakes wins.

Dude outearned Mike almost 2 to 1, but apparently Mike never got the memo, because he rules the paddock. If you try to give Dude a carrot, Mike is there trying to prevent any such act of kindness. They're for him.

This feeling of privilege was earned by Mike on the track, where he was beloved and doted on by his owner-breeder-trainer, Carlo Vaccarezza. He outran his pedigree by miles. His sire, the unraced and obscure Spanish Steps, sired just five stakes winners in the United States from more than 300 foals, and has since been shipped off to stand in Saudi Arabia. But Little Mike is the stuff owners and breeders dream about – hitting it big, especially with a modestly bred homebred. Little Mike did that. The gelding took his owner on a joyous ride across the country to numerous top races, culminating in a victory in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita that almost earned him a championship turf title.

Little Mike earned a good retirement, and has that at Old Friends, romping around a paddock with another multimillionaire. And the competitive Little Mike is always trying to show Dude he's still got it.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: I thought I was Little Mike. I guess now I'm Littler Mike. Who wouldn't fall in love with this gorgeous athlete who outran his pedigree and everything else that anyone threw at him? I still remember his win in the Breeders' Cup, when he was sent off at long odds and with very little respect. He also didn't get much respect from the Eclipse Award voters. I think he's the only horse to win the Breeders' Cup Turf, Arlington Million, and Woodford Reserve Turf Classic in the same year and not win the Eclipse. But he gets all the respect he'll ever need at Old Friends.

HORSE TALK

CARLO VACCAREZZA, OWNER

One of the toughest days of my life was when my two boys, Nick and Mike, loaded you for your voyage to Old Friends for your well-deserved retirement. I decided to travel to Old Friends and wait for you upon your arrival and unload you from the van for the last time. This is the least I can do after all you have done for me and my family. Little Mike, you are a dream of a lifetime in a lifetime of dreams. So many things I can say about you. You are brave. You never quit. You always give 1,000 percent. You compete at the highest level and even in defeat you never give up. But, the most fitting words that I can say are, "I love you," and you will always be "my champ."

RAMON DOMINGUEZ, JOCKEY

It was an honor to have been given the opportunity to ride a horse like Little Mike. He was a unique, gentle horse who gave me many satisfactions, and one who ran a top race every time, even against the odds, as he did when he won the 2012 Breeders' Cup Turf showing a different running style at a distance that was believed to be beyond his reach. He is the horse we all dream of coming in contact with.

Milwaukee Brew

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Milwaukee Brew's arrival at Old Friends in October of 2020 provided an example of why the retirement farm was created in the first place – as a place for pensioned stallions to live out their lives in comfort and where fans would have the chance to meet them.

Milwaukee Brew came to his forever home from Frank Stronach's Adena Springs North in Ontario, Canada. On the track, Milwaukee Brew was one of only four horses ever to win the famed Santa Anita Handicap more than once, joining a select club that includes the legendary John Henry, the grand campaigner Lava Man, and three-time winner and fellow Old Friends denizen Game On Dude. Rare territory, and great company, indeed.

By inaugural Breeders' Cup Classic winner Wild Again, Milwaukee Brew was purchased as a yearling by Stronach for $230,000 and went on to win five graded stakes and $2,879,612 while racing 24 times from ages 3 through 6. A model of consistency, he ran triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures 18 times.

Milwaukee Brew was well traveled as a stallion, standing initially in Kentucky before relocating to Florida, and eventually to Ontario. Overall, he sired 31 stakes winners and five champions, including Canadian champions Milwaukee Appeal and Ginger Brew.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: Milwaukee Brew and Awesome Again arrived at Old Friends together, and we're very grateful to Frank and Belinda Stronach and everyone at The Stronach Group for trusting us with these two great Thoroughbreds. The Stronachs have always been extremely generous when it comes to supporting the retirees they have retired to Old Friends.

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL BLOWEN

I was first attracted to Milwaukee Brew because of his name. I'm sure I'm not alone. Beer drinkers of the world unite! He was best known, in some circles, by the horses he lost to – third to Volponi in the 2002 Breeders' Cup Classic; third to Dixie Union in the 2000 Haskell, and he also finished behind fellow Old Friends retiree Albert the Great twice. Sometimes fans forget about his back-to-back wins in the Santa Anita Handicap (2002, 2003) or his scintillating wins in the Californian and the Ohio Derby. He won nearly $3 million. But that still doesn't explain his popularity. Personally, I think it's because his name perfectly fits his personality. Forget the champagne and the martinis and drinks overwhelmed by cream and fruit. He was a beer guy; a lunch-pail campaigner who showed up for work every time ready to put in a top effort, as long as the afternoon ended with a trip to the local pub. And he's that way in retirement. Let Silver Charm and Touch Gold garner all the attention. Let them spend the early evening sipping cognac at the Thoroughbred Club. Milwaukee Brew would rather be down at the Red Mile simulcast letting Jill dispense a Molson or two. (Naturally, since he's a Sovereign Award winner, he prefers Canadian beer.) As a retiree, he settled right in. He's not haughty like Touch Gold or extra friendly like Popcorn Deelites. He's got a self-assurance that comes from doing the best he could every time. And, when it was over, acknowledging the competition with a cold one.

Nicanor

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

It would be understandable if Nicanor had a bit of an attitude, if conceit or testing boundaries was a component of his character. He is, after all, a striking full brother to Barbaro, the spectacular winner of the Kentucky Derby in 2006.

The reality is that Nicanor is a down-to-earth horse, a real salt-of-the-earth resident of Old Friends in Georgetown, Ky.

“He might be the sweetest horse we’ve ever had,” said Michael Blowen, president of Old Friends. “He’s so sweet! He loves visitors. He tilts his head when getting his picture taken like he was John Barrymore or something!”

Blowen said Nicanor occupies a paddock between Belmont Stakes winner Sarava and Game On Dude and Little Mike, close to the beginning of the tour for visitors.

Nicanor made 18 starts, winning four races and placing in two stakes, while earning $147,697. Blowen noted the horse’s maiden win came by 15 lengths under Rosie Napravnik, a board member of Old Friends. The race, run in 2009 at Delaware Park, was the horse’s first on turf and he earned a career-high Beyer Speed Figure of 104.

Nicanor entered stud in 2013 and has three crops of racing age, but did not do well and was retired from stud duty after the 2017 breeding season. Blowen said the horse came to Old Friends at the request of Gretchen Jackson, who with her husband, Roy, bred and raced both Nicanor and the late Barbaro.

Nicanor, a 13-year-old by Dynaformer out of the Carson City mare La Ville Rouge, has made a splash since his arrival earlier in 2018.

“He’s very special,” Blowen said. “A lot of fans of Barbaro come to visit him. He’s been a real hit on the tour, a really good ambassador.”

— MARY RAMPELLINI

Michael says: Nicanor is the perfect retirement horse. His brother was more famous and more accomplished, but Nicanor has been a great retiree due to his disposition. If they had a Kentucky Derby for retirees and how well they took to it, he would win by 10 lengths.

HORSE TALK

GRETCHEN JACKSON, LAEL STABLE, OWNER

Nicanor, like Barbaro, was named after a hound in our painting of five hounds. He was born three years after Barbaro, his famous brother. Without question, he would have a lot to live up to. He was a lot like his big brother. Definitely size and color of his coat. He had very similar markings on his face, rather large ears and a not-small head. I remember our being told by the man who was responsible for breaking him that he was smart. When he went out on the track daily, he would stop to gaze around. He was always vigilant, smart, taking in his surroundings. He raced several years and he had soundness problems that hampered his ability to win races. He was a good allowance horse but not a stakes horse. But because he was Barbaro’s brother he stood at stud. He wasn’t successful there and he was gelded and retired to our farm in Pennsylvania. He turned into a real pet. Of course, we were thrilled to have him home with us. He gradually let himself become a pet, finding out that quiet farm life was to his liking. We got the idea that Nicanor must be shared. People inquired as to his whereabouts and wanted to see him. We landed on the idea that Old Friends would be perfect place for him. The rest is history.

Patch

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Patch does not wear an eye patch – but he could. That’s because he lost his left eye as a 2-year-old due to an infection. Perhaps prophetically, Patch was named long before he lost his eye, but the coincidence no doubt, coupled with his success as a racehorse as he overcame adversity, endeared him to fans across the country. When he went postward in the 2017 Kentucky Derby with just three lifetime starts and never having raced at age 2, Patch was nevertheless the sentimental choice of many and went off as sixth choice of 20 entrants. Unable to overcome his inexperience and the far outside post position, Patch finished 14th in the Run for the Roses. No matter. Undeterred and showing the grit his admirers loved, he came back in the 1 1/2-mile Belmont Stakes to finish third in the “The Test of the Champion.”

Patch, a son of Union Rags, was bred and raced by Calumet Farm and conditioned by leading trainer Todd Pletcher for most of his career. Though he never won a stakes, he competed in some of the nation’s top races in his three years on the track. He won two of 14 starts and earned $532,450.

Patch arrived at Old Friends in Georgetown, Ky., in October 2020 and, once pandemic restrictions have lifted in 2021, he should be an immensely popular horse for visitors.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: Patch is a great horse with a wonderful story, and is beloved by his fans. He has already stolen the hearts of everyone at Park Equine, where he spent a week while we made paddock space available, and everyone here is really excited about him.

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL BLOWEN

Everyone loves Patch. Fans who have never seen him love Patch. Even though he finished 14th in the 2017 Kentucky Derby and lost the Belmont Stakes, finishing a respectable third, people love Patch. People who aren’t necessarily fans of racing love Patch. The media, who covered him more enthusiastically than many of the more probable Derby starters, love Patch. Stormy Liberal loves Patch. I love Patch. At first, the answer is as clear as the smile on his face. He only has one eye. His left eye was removed when he was 2 years old to save his life. Everyone likes the feel-good story of an athlete with a disability who overcomes long odds to compete on the big stage. Curiously, he was named Patch when he still had both eyes. While he was a decent racehorse, he never won a stakes but did retire with more than $500,000 in earnings. By any conventional measure, he wasn’t a superstar. Yet, he is. When Calumet called to offer Patch as an Old Friends candidate, I jumped at the chance. Within hours of his arrival at the farm, we were inundated with emails and Facebook inquiries and, within a few more days, letters extolling his virtues. People who had never visited Old Friend were reserving the first available spaces. Patch has lived up to his post-racing hype. He’s big. He’s beautiful. He adores his fans and he can’t wait until COVID-19 allows us to reopen our doors. He didn’t win the Derby or a Breeders’ Cup race, but he’s won everyone’s heart. And, in the end, isn’t that the most important thing of all? It doesn’t take both eyes to see that.

Ring Weekend

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Ring Weekend was a high-class runner for West Point Thoroughbreds, which purchased the son of leading sire Tapit with high expectations in 2012, paying $310,000 for him at Keeneland's September yearling sale. He would deliver, and often.

Ring's biggest win came in the Grade 1 Frank E. Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita as a 4-year-old, and he was victorious in graded stakes from ages 3 through 5. He competed in 25 stakes, winning six – all graded. Versatility was one of his strengths; he won on both dirt and turf, at 14 different racetracks through six seasons and earned more than $1.5 million while finishing in the top three in more than half of his 33 starts, all for trainer Graham Motion. He was the kind of runner that owners and trainers dream about.

Ring's athleticism eventually drew the attention of Olympic gold medalist Phillip Dutton, who, with his wife, Evie, bought into the West Point partnership that owned him. When the well-bred gelding was retired from racing at age 7 in 2018, the Duttons attempted to repurpose him as an event horse, but in the process, Ring suffered an injury that would eliminate a second career. The decision was then made to find a forever home for the classy warrior, and the choice was obvious – Old Friends.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: After the 2021 Belmont Stakes, I was waiting for Lorita Lindemann to pick me up in the parking lot at Belmont Park. Coincidentally, Graham and Anita Motion were just in front of me. After exchanging a bit of small talk, Graham asked if Old Friends would be interested in Ring Weekend. I was more excited than Brad Cox was in the winner's circle with Essential Quality. I'd seen Ring Weekend, a great West Point Thoroughbred horse, break the track record in the Bernard Baruch at Saratoga. Now, after a swing at being an Olympic competitor for gold medalist Phillip Dutton and a riding horse who exercised on Crane's Beach on the North Shore of Boston, he's here and he's best friends with Nicanor.

THREE WORDS: Classy – Compelling – Endearing

HORSE TALK

ANITA MOTION, RING WEEKEND TRAINING TEAM

Ring Weekend had the most elegant way of going and was a pleasure to watch. He retired from racing in 2018 with earnings of more than $1.5 million, and the decision to send him to Phillip and Evie Dutton to try as an event horse was unanimously made by the West Point partners. He showed promise from the beginning but then sustained a freak injury. We are truly grateful to Old Friends for accepting him, and we hope that this will mean his many fans and admirers can visit. I know we will.

Rocketry

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

The very name Rocketry might give the impression of a horse who ran like he'd been shot from a cannon, but in reality, the Hard Spun gelding was quite the opposite – a long-winded, distance-loving runner who set a trio of long-distance records in stakes company at major racetracks. Rocketry's come-from-behind style endeared him to fans, whom he rewarded with consistently good performances – finishing first, second, or third in 17 of 29 career starts over five seasons, all for owner Centennial Farms and trainer Jimmy Jerkens. Centennial had purchased the future star for $450,000 at Keeneland's 2015 September yearling sale; he paid them back handsomely with lifetime earnings of $811,577.

A highlight of Rocketry's career was his record-setting win in the 2018 Temperence Hill Invitational Stakes at Belmont Park, in which he broke the track standard for 1 5/8 miles on dirt set by legendary Man o' War 98 years earlier (and tied in 1960 by five-time Horse of the Year Kelso), running the distance in 2:40.18. Any horse mentioned in the same breath as those two immortals has indeed achieved something special.

But Rocky would not be defined by that single milestone; he also set distance records at Keeneland and Churchill Downs before retiring in 2021 and sent to unwind at Centennial's facility at Middleburg, Va. Rocky's move to Old Friends in Georgetown, Ky., in the fall of 2021, will allow his many fans to drop by and pay respects to their old favorite.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: Rocketry broke a track record set by Man o' War nearly 100 years ago. The bold marathoner could run all day. In a sport that lusts for speed, he took his time and, as usual, won. Thanks to Don Little Jr. and Centennial Farms for allowing us to care for this marvelous Thoroughbred.

THREE WORDS: Marathoner – Record Breaker – Haughty

HORSE TALK

DON LITTLE JR., OWNER AND PRESIDENT OF CENTENNIAL FARMS

Just like the movie character Rocky, Rocketry could not have lived up to his nickname of Rocky any better. He consistently campaigned in stakes carrying the Centennial flag with honor every time he set foot on the track. He was sound throughout his career while breaking three track records over a distance of ground. Being involved with a horse like this was truly a joy, thrill, and one that will be cherished by all the partners involved. While he will be missed on the oval, we look forward to him showing off to visitors at Old Friends.

Sarava

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

With a half-mile left to run in the 2002 Belmont Stakes, Sarava didn't get a call. He was racing fourth, just behind the leaders, while going nicely on the bridle, but track announcer Tom Durkin, focused like most of the crowd on War Emblem's failing Triple Crown bid, missed Sarava.

When Durkin returned to the front of the Belmont field at the three-furlong pole, Sarava was back on his map, and as the lead pack turned for home and Sarava knifed through to engage Medaglia d'Oro for the lead, it became clear that Sarava, against the odds, was not going away.

"A huge upset is looming here," Durkin said as the finish neared. "Under the line, Sarava has won! The biggest longshot in the history of the Belmont Stakes at 70-1!"

Where did the race come from? The Belmont was Sarava's third career win – and his last. He didn't start for more than 13 months afterward, and never again for trainer Kenny McPeck. In summer 2004, out of the blue, Sarava finished a close fifth in the Grade 1 Suburban and a close fourth in the Grade 1 Whitney. Those races, respectable performances against high-class competition, provided some validation for Sarava's Belmont performance. But posterity will remember Sarava for the sheer improbability of a victory on one of racing's biggest stages.

– MARCUS HERSH

Michael says: When Sarava, the longest shot in Belmont history, won, I tore up my losing tickets in a huff. Now, I'm overjoyed that he won because he's drawn thousands of fans to Old Friends. Recently, several Brazilian students told us that Sarava's name, in an Afro-Brazilian dialect, means "message to the gods."

HORSE TALK

CINDY GRISOLIA, BOARD MEMBER

Sarava may have won the Belmont Stakes in 2002, thwarting War Emblem's bid for the Triple Crown, but in retirement it seems he's found a new vocation: resident meteorologist. Is Sarava tucked behind his lean-to? The wind must be out of the north at 30 mph. Is he cooling himself in the shade? Today's heat index: High! Is Sarava inside his run-in shed? Chance of precipitation: 100 percent. We don't know when the classic winner hooked up with Mother Nature, but those of us who watch him from the office window have come to rely on his daily forecast. "Is Sarava in his house?" "Yes." "Better take an umbrella."

Silver Charm

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bob Baffert has won the Kentucky Derby six times now and, owing to American Pharoah and Justify, even has two Triple Crown winners on his résumé. But it was Silver Charm who first got him to the winner's circle on the first Saturday in May, and that victory came one year after a brutal loss, one that left Baffert wondering if he'd ever get a better chance on Derby Day. Cavonnier, Baffert's first starter in the Kentucky Derby, was beaten in the 1996 Derby in the very last jump by Grindstone. A year later, Silver Charm was in a dogfight with Captain Bodgit.

"Please don't do it. Lord, please don't do it to me again," Baffert said he pleaded as the horses neared the wire.

When the horses hit the finish, Baffert collapsed into the arms of Bob Lewis, who owned Silver Charm with his wife, Beverly.

"I didn't think I'd feel like that," Baffert said. "It was an unbelievable experience. My stomach hurt so much when they hit the wire, I couldn't move."

That tenacity was Silver Charm's calling card. Of his 12 wins, six – including a dead heat – were by a head or less. Silver Charm was the first horse with whom Baffert won the Dubai World Cup and was the first Kentucky Derby winner to also win that rich race.

– JAY PRIVMAN

Michael says: Dec. 1, 2014, was one of the happiest days of my life. When Silver Charm, led by Three Chimneys' Sandy Hatfield, calmly strolled off the Sallee Van, it marked a milestone in Old Friends history. And it allowed me to have my favorite Thoroughbred of all time in my backyard. He has lived up to all of our lofty expectations with his dignity and grace. How does it get any better than that?

HORSE TALK

TIM WILSON, FORMER FARM MANAGER

To work with Silver Charm every day is to be on set with a movie star. Not a young, flavor-of-the-month kind of star with a trendy new summer release coming out, but rather an enduring, bona fide, iconic mega-star. Think Cary Grant on set ... in a gray suit. The consummate professional, Silver Charm would be that seasoned actor who always knows his lines. As a pensioned stallion, he is always pitch-perfect in his understanding of his work as Old Friends's most famous public ambassador. Silver Charm took to the public from the very beginning. He has even worked into his routine the fact that running up from the back of his paddock to the front for receiving carrots, pats, and photo opportunities is far more exciting for his scores of appreciative fans than simply meandering over or just standing around. He gets it. As an older horse, though, he also instinctively understands the importance of pacing himself. Having learned the Old Friends tour schedule, he plans his daily naps in the warm sun to occur just prior to a next round of scheduled visitors. Arising refreshed, Old Friends's esteemed ambassador happily returns to work.

Soi Phet

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

On the East Coast, the name Soi Phet may have rung no bells for the average racegoer, but out West in recent years it was well known – and beloved. The horse who carried that moniker was a dark bay California-bred gelding who came from nowhere to become one of the most popular regional runners of his time.

Soi Phet was by a stakes-winning brother to Horse of the Year Tiznow, from a female family thin on quality black type. He would do his best to change that. Unraced until age 4, Soi Phet ground it out on the track over eight seasons, winning 15 of 64 starts and earning $1,023,917. He was claimed at age 5 by trainer Leonard Powell and under his new ownership's banner he proved smart, adaptable, and talented. He earned more than $1 million of his career earnings for Powell as he developed mentally and physically into a classy competitor on the tough Southern California circuit, where he became a multiple stakes winner at the advanced age of 10. In the 2018 Crystal Water Stakes, Soi Phet paid $96.80 as he became the oldest horse ever to win a stakes race in Santa Anita's long, storied history.

The "graybeard millionaire," as one writer referred to him, was a sizzling miler at his best, with a heart as big as a mountain. He won eight stakes on dirt and grass, including the 2014 Los Alamitos Mile, in which he broke his own track record in 1:33.95. Powell retired Soi Phet to Old Friends, arriving on July 8, 2019. Fans paid tribute to the gallant gelding on social media, with one commenting: "Thank you for every race you ever ran."

– MARY SIMON

Michael says: Who wouldn't love Soi Phet? The $16,000 claimer evolved into a millionaire and, on his way to financial security, became one of the most popular athletes in California history. "Financially, he means a lot," said his astute and kind trainer, Leonard Powell, when he won the $100,000 Bertrando Stakes at Los Alamitos. "But, honestly, for the horse it doesn't mean anything, because to me he has always been worth a million dollars and more." And he's even kinder and cooler than anyone could imagine. He's a sterling example of how a program of care, concern, and love can amount to a long, successful career and a happy and healthy retirement.

HORSE TALK

SANDRA BENOWITZ, OWNER

The call came in spring 2013 from trainer Leonard Powell. "I have found a horse to claim who looks like he has some potential. Are you in?" The partnership of Benowitz Family Trust, Mathilde Powell, and Paul Viskovich answered "Yes," and thus began the saga of Soi Phet, a 5-year-old gelding with a modest pedigree and only a maiden win in 16 starts. The next six years were extraordinary, as Soi Phet captured eight stakes and placed in six others, including the Grade 1 Awesome Again. In winning the Crystal Water Stakes at age 10, Soi Phet became the oldest stakes winner in the history of Santa Anita. He twice set the mile track record at Los Alamitos, where he won five stakes. Soi Phet proved his versatility by winning on dirt, synthetic, and turf. He won $1,023,917 while making 64 starts. To his connections, he is "family." Soi Phet's tenacity and longevity made him a fan favorite. His fans continually asked that he be retired where they could visit and see him as a happy horse. There is no better match than Soi Phet and Old Friends, horse heaven on Earth!

Stormy Liberal

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Stormy Liberal is the type of success story that horse racing thrives on. The one-time $100,000 auction juvenile showed only modest promise early in his career and by the fall of his 4-year-old season had been dropped into $40,000 claiming company. At that price, the Stormy Atlantic gelding was snapped up by trainer Peter Miller for Rockingham Ranch and David Bernsen. In Miller's hands, he developed into a star sprinter on grass, racing through age 7, capturing two editions of the $1 million Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, and earning the title of champion turf male of 2018. On the track, the handsome milk chocolate bay was pure speedball, winning 12 races from five to 6 1/2 furlongs and always on grass, en route to career earnings of more than $2.2 million. He also went abroad to finish in the money twice in the rich Al Quoz Sprint (UAE-G1) in Dubai.

When a late 2019 exam revealed lesions in both fore ankles, the decision was wisely made to retire Stormy Liberal to Old Friends, where he arrived in mid-February 2020 – just as the coronavirus pandemic was exploding. Thus, in retirement the amiable gelding has been unable to greet visiting fans who had cheered him on at the track. But when COVID-19 becomes a memory . . . bring it on.

Michael says: We're so thrilled to have Stormy Liberal join Old Friends, We're grateful to everyone connected with this great athlete, especially David. They did everything to assure that he would have a dignified retirement.

HORSE TALK

DAVID BERNSEN, OWNER

Stormy Liberal was a once-in-a-life-time horse. He literally took us around the world from Hong Kong to Dubai, and no matter where he lined up to run, he outran his odds, which was a testament of his will to win. I am acutely aware that the industry is under fire on a lot of fronts, specifically the safety and well-being of our athletes. I have been fortunate enough to spend a lot of time and resources understanding some of the core factors, and, in my opinion, the predominant cause is not identifying pre-existing conditions. I would urge other owners, especially those who have been able to enjoy success at the highest level, to take a more active role in finding and supporting a solution. Gary Hartunian of Rockingham Ranch and I are immensely grateful to have been able to race such a magnificent horse, and we hope his retirement to Old Friends will benefit all retired horses.

The Pizza Man

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

The Pizza Man is a real home state hero. The son of English Channel was bred in Illinois, won the state's richest race – the Grade 1 Arlington Million – and retired as the all-time leading money earner bred in the Prairie State, with $2,158,941. He is the only Illinois-bred ever to win the Arlington Million.

Bred by Midwest Thoroughbreds, the operation of Richard and Karen Papiese of Chicago, The Pizza Man is a homegrown product, the Papieses having claimed his dam, I Can Fan Fan, for $18,000 in 2005. He got his name because the Papieses thought the blaze on his forehead looked like a slice of pizza. Though from Chicago, they did not specify if they thought it looked like deep dish or thin crust.

Trained by the late Roger Brueggemann, The Pizza Man raced for seven years, winning 17 of 36 starts. His victories included Arlington's Grade 3 Stars and Stripes Stakes twice and the Grade 2 Hollywood Turf Cup. He even ventured to Canada to win the Grade 1 Northern Dancer Turf Stakes. In 2015, for his 6-year-old season, he was named Illinois-bred Horse of the Year.

The Pizza Man was retired on September 16, 2017, in a ceremony at Arlington Park, and later worked as a stable pony for Brueggemann's barn.

He came to Old Friends in August 2020 along with 2014 sprint champion Work All Week, another Papiese Illinois homebred trained by Brueggemann. These two Illinois-breds now share a paddock in retirement.

– MARK SIMON

Michael says: The Pizza Man and Work All Week arrived together and we are absolutely thrilled. I wish everyone could see their absolute joy as they celebrate in their paddock. Thanks to Midwest Thoroughbreds for trusting us and their fans for all their support.

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL BLOWEN

The Pizza Man received his unique moniker from owner Richard Papiese, who believed that the bay son of English Channel displayed a blaze on his forehead that looked like a slice of pizza. I don't see it. It's kind of like seeing a religious effigy in a slice of dry toast with extra cheese. In any case, little of that matters now. The Pizza Man retired as one of the greatest Thoroughbreds ever produced in Illinois, and, as a retiree, he still displays that Fightin' Illini spirit. And he certainly is one of the best athletes that state has produced in the past decade. Trained by the late Roger Brueggemann, The Pizza Man didn't hit his stride until his 5-year-old campaign. That year, I was invited by trainer Dee Poulos and racetrack guru Richard Duchossois to hand out the trophy for the Black Tie Affair Stakes at Arlington Park. He dominated the Black Tie Affair and won wire to wire. And I got to present him the trophy. Now, thanks to Richard and Karen Papiese, we've been reunited at Old Friends. I'm sure he doesn't remember me, but I sure remember him. He's so good looking and dignified I'm thinking of renaming him The Pavlova Man. But that wouldn't fit. I'll take The Pizza Man with all fixins.

Touch Gold

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

For over 20 years I have been awaiting the chance to repay the favor to Touch Gold for bailing me out, and those that happened to trust my opinion back on a famous afternoon of racing.

Push the rewind button to June 1997 when Silver Charm was seeking to become a Triple Crown winner in the Belmont Stakes after winning the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. And though I respected Silver Charm, I was thrilled about the prospect of betting against him at a short price – with Illinois Derby winner Wild Rush.

I told friends in the Daily Racing Form office that year: Wild Rush – bet him. Well, Wild Rush gave me a Belmont rush for only a mile or so, then began his retreat. And that's when his entymate Touch Gold saved the day, rallying wide under Chris McCarron to catch Silver Charm in the closing strides. Thanks to Touch Gold being coupled in the wagering with Wild Rush, I was wrong and still got to collect a $7.30 mutuel, leaving me that day much luckier than smart.

With the benefit of hindsight, Wild Rush had nothing on Touch Gold as a 3-year-old. For that matter, it could be argued that not even Silver Charm and Free House – other top 3-year-olds of that year – were of his quality for at least a few months that summer, when Touch Gold also won the Haskell, and prior to the Belmont was an unlucky fourth in the Preakness after stumbling to his face at the start and injuring a hoof.

He is a splendid addition to Old Friends, and I'm sure many, like me, will forever remember his 1997 Belmont victory, whether they bet him (or his stablemate) or not.

– BYRON KING

Michael says: Reuniting Touch Gold with Silver Charm at Old Friends is a Celtics-Lakers, Ali-Frazier, Yankees-Red Sox, Packers-Bears moment. One of the great rivalries in all of sports, Silver Charm prevailed in the 1997 Kentucky Derby and Preakness but lost in the Belmont, when that crafty Chris McCarron aboard Touch Gold snuck up from behind when Silver Charm wasn't looking. Okay, I'm biased.

PEDIGREE: 1994, b. h., by Deputy Minister—Passing Mood, by Buckpasser

THREE WORDS: Brilliant – Tough – Intelligent

HORSE TALK

LISA Q. WOOD, TOUR GUIDE

I call Touch Gold our hunk-a-hunk-a horse. He is an admirable combination of power, muscle, intelligence, and intensity. He exudes strength and confidence and commands respect. In his younger days a formidable opponent on the racetrack, today he is still every bit a proud, territorial stallion. On tours, Touch Gold teaches me patience. I approach his paddock calling his name. Always in the opposite corner of his paddock from me, he begins with a look over his shoulder. The stopwatch starts ... the game is on. Every movement is a precisely choreographed practiced strategy. He starts with a slow turn in my direction, and proceeds with a graceful, cat-like walk, every step measured. At the halfway point in his paddock, he breaks into a full run. Touch Gold defines "horsepower" – all cylinders firing. Suddenly he is right in front of me with a precision-timed stop – a proud arrival at the finish line, awaiting carrots. Visitors are thrilled! I quickly glance upward in thanks, and breathe a sigh of relief. Another victory for Touch Gold ... a little more patience for me, plenty of appreciation for him!

Work All Week

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Illinois has had a viable breeding industry for a century now, producing the likes of 1927 champion Anita Peabody, 1970 Kentucky Derby winner Dust Commander, 1998 champion turf male Buck's Boy, and more recent multiple Grade 1 winner Stephanie's Kitten. Another who belongs in that rank is America's 2014 Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Work All Week.

Bred in the Prairie State by Richard and Karen Papiese's Midwest Thoroughbreds and trained by Roger Brueggemann, the chestnut son of City Zip did not race until November of his sophomore season – and did not win until age 4. But from then on, his career shot off on a straight-to-the-stars trajectory.

Work All Week eventually became a seven-time stakes winner, finishing in the top three in 18 of 19 starts and earning $1,511,071. His marquee victory came in the 2014 Breeders' Cup Sprint, preceded by a record-smashing six-furlong performance in Keeneland's Phoenix Stakes, which together netted him an Eclipse Award.

The two-time Illinois Horse of the Year was retired in October 2015 due to a stress fracture in his right knee. After lay-up and recovery, Work All Week returned to the track as a stable pony in 2016, running down more than a few loose horses for New York trainer Danny Gargan. Along with his Grade 1-winning stablemate The Pizza Man, the brilliant sprinter was retired to Old Friends last August, where the two geldings now happily share a paddock.

– MARY SIMON

Michael says: The Pizza Man and Work All Week arrived together and we are absolutely thrilled. I wish everyone could see their absolute joy as they celebrate in their paddock. Thanks to Midwest Thoroughbreds for trusting us and their fans for all their support.

MILESTONE: Champion sprinter 2014

THREE WORDS: And – Weekends – Too

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL BLOWEN

Work All Week is aptly named. He certainly wasn't precocious. He didn't race at 2 and, as a 3-year-old, he ran in an undistinguished maiden race at Hawthorne and finished a disappointing sixth. Yet, as a 4-year-old, he won seven of eight sprints, and, at 5, he showed up at Oaklawn Park and acted as if he owned the place. He did. In the fall of the year (2014), he won the prestigious Phoenix Stakes at Keeneland, punching his ticket for the Breeders' Cup a few weeks later. His stunning performance at long odds, defeating another Illinois-based speedster and future Old Friends resident Private Zone in the Breeders' Cup Sprint, cemented his claim to that year's Eclipse Award as sprint champion. When we were contacted by his owners, Richard and Karen Papiese, we were thrilled that they would trust us with their retired champion and, furthermore, he would be accompanied by his stablemate and fellow great Illinois-bred, The Pizza Man. Work All Week didn't disappoint on the track with earnings of more than $1.5 million, and he won't disappoint his fans. The 12-year-old chestnut gelding is as handsome as he was fast. And, in an ending so ridiculously happy it might have been rejected by Walt Disney, he shares a paddock with longtime associate The Pizza Man seven days a week.

Zulu Alpha

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Owner Michael Hui has enjoyed much success in the challenging world of claiming, a segment of racing he has decided to focus on. And why not? It has given him a number of notable runners who have risen from the claiming ranks to become stakes winners and to earn back their purchase prices many times over.

Zulu Alpha, Hui's most successful claim to date, is a prime example of how when things go right in this game, it can be both exhilarating and profitable.

Hui, a resident of Little Rock, Ark., claimed Zulu Alpha for $80,000 in the fall of the gelding's 5-year-old season. In his first start for Hui, the son of Street Cry won the Grade 3 Sycamore Stakes at Keeneland, earning $60,000. But he was just getting warmed up. In the care of trainer Mike Maker, Zulu Alpha eventually won seven stakes for Hui, none more important or prestigious than the Grade 1, $1 million Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational at Gulfstream Park. He had preceded that victory with a strong fourth-place finish in the 2019 Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita. In 18 starts for Hui, Zulu Alpha earned $2,091,350, more than 26 times his claiming price.

Several years earlier, Hui had claimed the Offlee Wild gelding Hoky, also for $80,000, and that horse went on to win three stakes and $442,855 for his new owner. Hoky was retired to Old Friends in 2019 but unfortunately died this past year. Hui now has another well-deserved retiree at Old Friends in Zulu Alpha.

— MARK SIMON

Michael says: Owner Michael Hui and trainer Mike Maker announced the retirement of the 8-year-old son of Street Cry in September 2021 after the gelding was scratched from the Grade 2 Calumet Turf Cup at Kentucky Downs. We are very excited to have Zulu Alpha with us. We are grateful to Michael for allowing us to care for this great horse, and we know that he will be a fan favorite.

HORSE TALK

MICHAEL HUI, OWNER

Zulu came to us via the claim box, initially placed with John Oritz, then transferred to Mike Maker for a winter campaign in South Florida. The rest is history. He took us on the ride of a lifetime and reached a level of success we could only dream of. Seven graded wins later, he now will call Old Friends home. Thank you, Mike Maker and team. "When Amazombie is done racing, we would love to stand him at stud at our farm," said the stallion manager. "You must have a great veterinarian," was Spawr's reply. "Why?" asked the stallion manager. "Because he has been a gelding since 2009," Spawr said. So much for a stallion career, but the fact he is a gelding allows him to enjoy the attention and carrots he receives each and every day at Old Friends. — Jon Lindo, co-owner

HORSE TALK: Jocelyn Morgan, president of Ivy Green Farm in Lexington, called us in 2014 and asked if we'd like to retire Daytona. I was delighted. Jocelyn sent a detailed list of his medical needs, personality quirks, and hoof-trimming history. Daytona, is one of the kindest, gentlest retirees of all time. His trainer, Dan Hendricks, was very happy that Daytona was retired with us and periodically checks on him. Daytona is very fortunate to be adored by his previous owner and lots of fans. — Michael Blown

I saw many beautiful and great horses that day at a range of open houses, but seeing Doneraile Court, stately, muscular, with a rich chocolate maple coat, was a special treat that I remember like yesterday. — Kate Dunn, fan and supporter

Easy Grades

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Dark bay or brown gelding

Birth date: April 13, 1999

Sire: Honor Grades

Dam: Itsoeasy

Old Friends entry date: 2009

Earnings: $559,744

HORSE TALK: Easy Grades qualified for the 2002 Kentucky Derby with two second-place finishes in graded stakes. In the Derby, he finished 13th to eventual Old Friends resident War Emblem, and he never did win a stakes race. Today, Easy Grades is still going strong. A little tough when younger, Easy has mellowed into a relaxed middle age, well-liked by his equine and human friends. He seems a contented guy. But when I talk to him, I don't call him Easy Grades. Just so he knows, I remember his moment of glory, I call him "Derby horse." — Beth Shannon, Old Friends staff

Ed Johnson

LAURA BATTLES

Gray or roan gelding

Sire: Paddy O'Prado

Dam: Sassy Gal

Old Friends entry date: 2021

Earnings: $91,355

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Alcatraz S.

HORSE TALK: Ed Johnson was more than just horse to Frankfurt Stable owner Lewis Figone. Ed came along late in Lewis's racing career. His friend Ron McAnally, knowing the fondness that Lewis had for grays, picked him out with Lewis in mind. Named Ed Johnson after a close friend of Lewis's, the horse quickly became a focal point for Lewis. Spending some time in Southern California, Ed came closer to home and Lewis spent many hours visiting him in his stall. Feeding carrots became a daily ritual, the spirits of both horse and owner were lifted by each other at a difficult time. It is said that a relationship with an animal can lift a person's spirit and Ed did just that when Lewis needed it most late in life. Lewis's wish was for Ed to retire to Old Friends where he knew that there was no better place for Ed to be cared for. And he did. — Greg Christie, Frankfurt Stable

Fellow Bostonian Walter Downey, of Tea Party Stable, facilitated his retirement. As healthy and bright as the day he arrived, it's hard to imagine a more strikingly handsome horse. HORSE TALK: I ran into trainer Roger Attfield at Keeneland, and he said he might have a horse that would fit the Old Friends program. A few days later, he asked if we would be interested in Forte Dei Marmi. I was floored. The gelded son of Selkirk won Canada's Sovereign Award as turf champion in 2013 at the ripe old age of 7. Named after a village in Tuscany, the rugged multiple stakes winner is exactly the sort of champion we appreciate. Forte Dei Marmi's strong, independent streak made his retirement as smooth and effortless as his stride. — Michael Blowen

After a metal plate and more than 20 screws were inserted to stabilize the bone, Green Mask spent a few months rehabbing before arriving at Old Friends. Since then, he's become a symbol of how much so many people in racing adore these athletes. Now, with his plate and screws removed and the bone fully healed, he gets to show off his renewed energetic spirit to all of his fans.

Groundshaker

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay mare

Birth date: February 14, 2011

Sire: Quiet American

Dam: Cotton Anne

Old Friends entry date: 2021

Earnings: $1,060

HORSE TALK: Groundshaker hardly had a seismic effect on horse racing. She made only two starts and won none. Historically, however, she has set off a few tremors. She was the last horse bred by the grand dame of racing, Penny Chenery, and she is out of Chenery's last mare, Cotton Anne, a daughter of Pioneering, which makes Groundshaker's great grandsire, on her dam's side, the legendary Secretariat. Groundshaker made a career of her family tree, welcoming tourists and visitors at The Meadow Event Park in Virginia, the site where Secretariat was born. When COVID took a bite out of the park's tour activities, Groundshaker took up residence at Old Friends, where she has buddied up with Private Charm, who, as the daughter of Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm, has an ancestor of her own to boast about.

High Heels 2019

Chestnut filly
Birth date: February 5, 2019
Sire: Mineshaft
Dam: High Heels
Old Friends entry date: 2021
Earnings: $0

LAURA BATTLES

HORSE TALK: High Heels 2019 (who is yet to be named) had a sad beginning but happy ending. As a foal she fractured her foot. This injury healed and she was on track to have a racing career. Her markings are quiet striking. Her most interesting trait is that she has a partial blue eye. She was not named because I was waiting on her personality to emerge. I was very excited to see her start training, but four months into training, she refractured the foot and was deemed not capable of racing. I debated the best next move for a few months before asking Old Friends if they could help. What a happy girl she is now! – Anita Ebert, owner

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Chestnut gelding
Birth date: April 11, 2005
Sire: Hussonet
Dam: Bo Bo's Sister
Old Friends entry date: 2008
Earnings: $58,610

HORSE TALK: When I first met Hussonfirst he was a 3-year-old kid with a bandaged leg. He'd been a promising allowance horse, but a fracture had ended his career. Jim Ponte, a member of the partnership that raced him, saw in him more than a horse no longer able to earn money. He saw a willing, kind, vivacious youngster who should have a future. He enabled Hussonfirst's recovery and retirement to Old Friends. JPonte Printing, owned by Ponte, has for years donated beautiful bookmarks, posters, cards, and other popular items sold in Old Friends's gift shop. In that sense, Hussonfirst is a significant contributor to his own, and his fellow retirees', support. — Beth Shannon, Old Friends staff

HORSE TALK: Peter Willmott, a long-time supporter of Old Friends, retired Williamstown and Ide to us and loves visiting his old campaigners. And he gets the Old Friends haberdasher award as best-dressed advocate. I first laid eyes on Ide many years ago at Saratoga when trainer Peter Vestal allowed me to give him a carrot. After losing his first two races, he went on a winning streak that had him headed to the Kentucky Derby as one of the favorites. He was alert, aware, and very, very self-assured. Unfortunately, he was hurt and subsequently retired. Now, he's part of the Toyota/Georgetown-Scott County Tourism advertising campaign. — Michael Blowen

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Texas horse of the year; Won Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash S. (G3), David M. Vance Sprint S. four times, King Cotton S. twice, Remington Park Sprint Cup S.

HORSE TALK: Ivan Fallunovalot was an amazing racehorse and a fan favorite racing in Arkansas, Texas, and Oklahoma. From 2014 until 2018, he went from being a $25,000 claimer to a racing millionaire. One reason he had so many fans is his funny, unique name. It sounds like "I've been falling off a lot." His breeder came up with this name as a joke, but his racing career was no joke. At the stables, he was as gentle as a kitten. However, when race day arrived it was "game on" and he turned into a beast. Owning Ivan was like living a dream! — Lewis Mathews Jr., owner

Jimbo Fallon

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Gray or roan gelding

Birth date: April 26, 2012

Sire: Midnight Lute

Dam: Nice Again

Old Friends entry date: 2016

Earnings: $99,187

HORSE TALK: Jimbo brought so much excitement to our family! We love Jimmy Fallon and always record "The Tonight Show," which we watch as a family. Jimbo is our son Bode's nickname for the show, and when we were looking for a name for our gray Midnight Lute yearling, we thought that would be perfect. Like his sire, Jimbo is a big boy with a deep heart girth and massive shoulder. For such a large horse, he was really well-balanced and had a lot of speed. He gave it his all every time he was on the track, but what I love about him the most is his charm and personality. He really is a gentle giant. — Jill Baffert, owner

HORSE TALK: Joey P. was retired from the track for nearly seven years when Laurie Lane contacted Old Friends. I had seen Joey P. race and was thrilled that Second Call Thoroughbred Adoption and Placement would consider Old Friends for his new residence. Laurie should be commended because it's rare that we receive such detailed medical records and a generous financial endowment with our retirees. He's a big hit on the tours but prefers the company of his equine pals. — Michael Blawie

Bourbon Lane donated enough money for a new paddock at Old Friends designated for any future Bourbon Lane athletes that require retirement. Johannesbourbon symbolizes what can be done through a combination of generosity and cooperation to not only improve the post breeding careers of these athletes but to show sceptics that there are many in the sport who cherish these great competitors.

HORSE TALK: When Johannesburg Smile realized that Old Friends is about carrots not clockers, and playtime not morning works, he took over. He made Old Friends his very own. He fussed at first about having a paddock mate but then formed one of the strongest bonds on the farm with Bourbonize. Those two have some of the most fun together of any of our retirees. Johannesburg Smile may look like his dad, Johannesburg, but he's got a mind of his own. He's carved his own way and he's shaped himself a well-deserved life of fun and security at Old Friends. — Beth Shannon, Old Friends staff

"That meant more to me than the money," owner-trainer Edward Boerjan told ESPN. "Just knowing he'll be taken care of. I can just picture him standing there with Silver Charm and Game On Dude." When Ed died from cancer in late 2017, Kalamos moved to Old Friends a week later. And is living happily ever after at his home for life.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Oaklawn H. (G1), Californian S. (G2), San Marino H., Jim Murray Memorial H.

HORSE TALK: I first met Kudos from afar at the 2002 Oaklawn Handicap. For some reason, I decided to go over to the infield and watch the horses saddle up for the race. Kudos was standing there, head up, ears pricked, staring straight at me. And I got caught in the gaze of Kudos. I still keep that image in my head. Meeting him at Old Friends was special the first time I saw him. I remembered being trapped by his gaze at Oaklawn so many years ago. — Laura Battles, Old Friends photographer and tour guide

Dam: Shared Emotion

Old Friends entry date: 2021

Earnings: $40,272

HORSE TALK: Thoroughbred journalist Claire Novak-Crosby notified us that this son of Rahy was no longer suitable for a riding horse and needed a new home. We gladly took him in. Logansport has found his niche as one of the handsomest horses at Old Friends, and he's sure to be a fan favorite.

Lou Brissie

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Chestnut gelding

Birth date: March 25, 2008

Sire: Limehouse

Dam: Fearless Wildcat

Old Friends entry date: 2021

Earnings: $176,217

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Kentucky Juvenile S. (G3)

HORSE TALK: Lou Brissie followed a road not often taken by Old Friends residents. Owned in partnership by one of our longtime supporters, Lou had a respectable racing career, spanning 21 starts — among them, three wins, including the Kentucky Juvenile Stakes in 2010. But when his racing career was over, he wasn't quite ready for that final act. So rather than enter him into one of our herds, we helped him find a transitional home with hunter/jumper rider Ashley Duvall, who enjoyed showing the handsome son of Limehouse under saddle and over fences for eight years, collecting an impressive set of ribbons along the way. In 2021, injuries made showing difficult for Lou, so he came home to roost among his new old friends. Welcome back, welcome back.

Lubash

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay gelding

Birth date: Feb. 24, 2007

HORSE TALK: Lubash was a unique horse. He won his first stakes in 2010 at age 3 and his last stakes in 2016 at age 9. He was a horse who always carried an extraordinary amount of energy day-to-day. Perhaps he was never quite 100 percent relaxed, but he always showed a fantastic turn of foot on the racetrack – even as an older horse. He gave his owner and breeder, Leonard Pivnick, a great amount of joy with an exciting racing career over a long period of time. He wasn't just a nice New York-bred – he was just a very nice horse. – Christophe Clement, trainer

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Ohio Derby (G2), Private Terms S., Deputed Testamony S., Goss L. Stryker S., Maryland Juvenile Championship S.; 2nd Preakness Stakes (G1)

HORSE TALK: Referred to as "Magic," this hometown hero was more than just a horse. He was full of promise for his late breeder, owner, trainer, groom, and often exercise rider, Nancy Alberts. When he was a weanling, Nancy was told he would never race. Thanks to the "Magic" performed by the late Dr. Allen Wisner, Magic rose to not only local fame but national fame when he came within three-quarters of a length of winning the Preakness Stakes. Nancy named Magic after Dr. Wisner but misspelled his name during registration. Magic was the catalyst that helped Nancy achieve her lifelong dream of owning a small farm where she could look out her kitchen window and see her horses daily. – Carl and Bunny Meister, caregivers

Sire: Sunday Break

Dam: Majestic Mommy

Old Friends entry date: 2013

Earnings: $155,738

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Sanford S. (G2)

HORSE TALK: Maybesomaybenot made our racing dreams come true. After winning at Churchill Downs and the Sanford Stakes at Saratoga, we had high expectations for Maybesomaybenot. Our trainer, Michael Maker, worked hard for us to have another great day, but it didn't happen. I told my wife that perhaps we need to retire Maybesomaybenot. We had toured Old Friends and talked of how professional the facilities were and how wonderful to have a place to retire Thoroughbred horses for people to see. Coming from a coal miner's father and a share-cropper's father, we are more than blessed to have had a nice Thoroughbred horse and good people to help us. We are so grateful! — Carolyn and Arthellor Scisney, owners

Miss Du Bois

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Sire: Mr. Prospector

Dam: Blanche Du Bois

Old Friends entry date: 2015

Earnings: $25,535

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Dam of Grade 1 winner Film Maker

HORSE TALK: A Grade 1 producer who couldn't win a race herself, Miss Du Bois is one smart little redhead. After observing the mannerisms of Australian champion and paddock-mate Bint Marscay for a few years, she stepped into the gap when Binty left us and demanded the position of "mare who gets carrots and grooming from the photographer." She really loves the carrots and is a very talkative mare. — Laura Battles, Old Friends photographer and tour guide

Mikethespike

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Gray or roan gelding

Birth date: March 11, 2000

Sire: Anet

Dam: Black Tie Royalty

Old Friends entry date: 2010

Earnings: $85,301

HORSE TALK: After making an amazing 126 starts on the racetrack, Mikethespike came safely home to Old Friends in 2010. Several years later, volunteer Bea Snyder and I were at Beulah Park, and I was approached by Mikey's former owner. He apologized, saying he had given Mikey to someone who had promised to retire him but didn't. He said in the future, he would keep the papers of any horse he retired so they could not race again. Mikey now romps and scuffles with other geldings in the big paddock at Old Friends. He is the beneficiary of many friends, past and present. He is a lucky little horse. — Vivien Morrison, volunteer

Miss Hooligan

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Dark bay or brown mare

Birth date: March 11, 2005

Sire: Hoolie

Dam: Sunbeam Queen

Old Friends entry date: 2010

Earnings: $2,325

HORSE TALK: On a cool, misty morning, I was driving the golf cart down the lane between paddocks to feed breakfast to the mares at the back of the farm. I turned and looked to my left, and there about 30 yards away on the crown of the paddock coming out of the mist in ghostly fashion was Miss Hooligan. She was running fast, almost gliding over the ground, trying to keep up with the golf cart to beat me to the feed buckets. It was one of the most beautiful things I've ever seen and a memory I'll never forget. — Rick Capone, co-owner and photographer

HORSE TALK: Mr. Jordan certainly paid his dues, making 43 starts during seven seasons on the racetrack. The flashy gelding kicked butt as a 2-year-old, dusting the field in his first three starts, then earning his first graded stakes at 3 when taking the Grade 3 Pegasus Stakes at Monmouth Park. The eye-catching gelding won six stakes in all, many at his preferred track, Gulfstream Park West (formerly known as Calder). When it was time to retire, the drop-dead beautiful son Kantharos came to Old Friends via co-owner and trainer Eddie Plesa Jr., and he now swaps war stories with graded stakes winners Diversify and Soldat. "I entered him because I knew, if he won, he'd have a lifetime retirement at Old Friends," he said as he walked out of the winner's circle. After a very successful career that included a win in the $1 million Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland in 2018, he retired here. And we're very grateful.

Those of us in the industry always admire and want to be a part of a horse like him. Persie, the 2018 National HBPA Claiming Horse of the Year, won 10 races that year. HORSE TALK: I got a call in 2021 from a long-time supporter who told me about a daughter of Silver Charm. Private Charm was in a precarious situation, and friends were mounting a campaign to give the mare a dignified retirement. It meant we would have to leapfrog her over several other deserving candidates and, as far as I'm concerned, nepotism matters. Especially when my favorite horse of all time, Silver Charm, is involved. — Michael Blowen

HORSE TALK: It was love at first sight with Rail Trip. He was very fast as a 2-year-old, but would use himself up. Gelding him changed him for the better. I remember his first race back, with his neck bowed, and he was very proud of himself after. It was fun watching him figure it out. Most good horses are really sweet. He has the greatest disposition and he's a smart horse! I wish I had a big enough backyard for him here (California)! — Samantha Siegel, owner

Rapid, meaning speedy, swift, quick, and redux, meaning to bring back or revive. In other words, he was fast over and over and over again. Rapid Redux holds the modern North American record for consecutive races won — 22. For his efforts, he was awarded a Special Eclipse Award in 2011, and his gutsy spirit also earned him the 2011 Secretariat Vox Populi Award.

He seems nice." There stood the stately, handsome dark brown beauty with the cute little white star calmly and politely waiting for a tasty carrot, an exemplification of the virtue of patience. He is such a friendly sweet guy who has won my heart and is now the first horse I take visitors to see in the barn! — Carol Ware, tour guide

He laid it on the line every time he went out there and brought so much pleasure to all around him. That is why everyone connected with him is so happy he has a great home at Old Friends. — Michael Dubb, owner

Rumor Has It

RICK CAPONE

Dark bay or brown gelding

Birth date: May 13, 2001

Sire: Awesome Again

Dam: Garden Secrets

Old Friends entry date: 2015

Earnings: $303,316

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Kentucky Cup Turf S. (G3), Rossi Gold S., Polar Expedition S., John Henry S.

HORSE TALK: Rumor Has It was a Saratoga sale yearling when he kicked a wall and broke several bones. He recovered, was put into training, and promptly backed into a manure spreader — opening a gash from hock to ankle. After an unpromising early career, he won a small stakes race at the Meadowlands before injuring a suspensory ligament. After a delay of many months, he returned to training and showed some talent as a turf distance runner. In 2008, he won the $200,000 Kentucky Turf Cup at Kentucky Downs, at odds of 59-1. We are so pleased that Rumor is spending his days in retirement at Old Friends. — Bill Patterson, owner

Old Friends entry date: 2011

Earnings: $75,665

HORSE TALK: Saratoga Episode has had quite a few paddock-mates over the years. He is just a nice gelding who always wants a carrot or two or three. Sire: Seeking the Gold

aDam: Tasso Run

Old Friends entry date: 2014

A son of Seeking the Gold, Sarbonne had a modest claiming career, but hit his stride as a workout partner for the Breeders' Cup Classic winner and 2010 Horse of the Year before being retired.

HORSE TALK: Saudi Poetry is one of the most loving, kind, and noble creatures walking this Earth. How lucky we were, and how grateful, that she graced our home and pastures for the two-plus years that she did. Finding Saudi Poetry, and pulling her from the ocean of indifference that can sometimes engulf older mares, became one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. To have been able to do it alongside my friend and partner in the mare, Laura Hillenbrand, made it all the more meaningful. — Jeff Morris, owner

HORSE TALK: Sean Avery is one of the smartest horses we have ever been around! Though his temperament changed with age, Chris tells a story of putting our granddaughter on his back as a 2-year-old. He was a Cadillac of a horse! It was like he always knew what you wanted him to do, yet he'd wait on a command. He loved being a racehorse. Chris and I were blessed to be a part of his team.

At 91-1, he paid a whopping $185.40 to his backers, who obviously paid attention to the fact that he excelled when racing at Churchill Downs. Seek Gold came to Old Friends through the efforts of trainer Ron Moquett and the generosity of Bowman Couch Racing. He proved himself among the best of a prestigious division, and an inspiration to all those in the game who, like Moquett and Bowman Couch Racing had been, are "out here struggling and trying to make payroll and trying to pay the feed company," as Moquett put it. "They appreciate what this win means to us."

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Sunland Juvenile Mile S., A.C. Kemp H., Sunland Thoroughbred Derby, Gambit S., Governor's H., Mescalero Apache H., Ruidoso Sprint Championship H., Texas Derby, KLAQ H.

HORSE TALK: Perhaps the name is fitting. "Slamming." For what he was later known for, banging the feed tub around and causing an uproar in the barn. Always. Or the time he got loose and was running up and down the streets of East Boston. In the summer of 2000, I dropped a claim in for him. That's when he became my poor man's horse, winning six races and almost always picking up a check, a pure-bred winner. A sesamoid issue in May 2002 would end his racing days. Now Slamming, with 80 starts and 20 wins, calls Old Friends his home. — Lorita Lindemann, trainer

A broodmare, Smokey had 10 foals over 11 seasons, a remarkable breeding record, though none quite matched her prowess on the track.

Old Friends entry date: 2017

Earnings: $1,117,200

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Ohio Derby (G2), Gulfstream Park H. (G2), Hutcheson S. (G2), Needles S.

Years ago, he retired The Name's Jimmy to us and, when it came time for this multiple stakes winner Smooth Air to retire, he called us. Smooth Air won or was on the board in 14 races in 17 starts and ended up with earnings of $1,117,200. And Brian loved him. Smooth Air is just like his name: smooth as glass. Handsome, confident, easy going, and as cool as they come. He's completely content to graze and eat carrots and allow us to dote on him.

Sokitumi Samurai

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay gelding

Birth date: March 31, 2009

Sire: First Samurai

Dam: Pleasant Laughter

Old Friends entry date: 2014

Earnings: $260,222

HORSE TALK: Besides Sokitumi Samurai's handsome blaze, he has the personality to go along with his good looks and talent. He was tough to gallop, but we did okay together, and he always picked up checks. He was claimed from me several times. I claimed him back. In August 2014, I claimed him back one final time, sensing that something may be wrong. Upon his arrival in Saratoga, where I was based, I X-rayed him and discovered he had a leg fracture. I called Michael Blowen of Old Friends and asked if he had room for this wonderful boy. — Diane Balsamo, owner-trainer

Soldat

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Sire: War Front

Dam: Le Relais

Old Friends entry date: 2019

Earnings: $622,760

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Fountain of Youth S. (G2), With Anticipation S. (G3)

HORSE TALK: Soldat's run to the Kentucky Derby, a first for my family, was about more than just racing, roses, or mint juleps. It was about community. That first weekend in May 2011, my dad arranged for about 20 of my college friends to travel from our school in Pennsylvania to Kentucky for, I believe, their first horse racing experience. They even stayed at the TKE house on the University of Louisville's campus before hurrying home for finals the following Monday. Today, many years later, they still bring up how great of an experience it was. — Scott E. Clarke, son of owner Harvey Clarke.

Special Ring

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay gelding

Birth date: March 9, 1997

Sire: Nureyev

Dam: Ring Beaune

Old Friends entry date: 2005

Earnings: $915,023

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Eddie Read H. (G1) twice, Wickerr H., Prix de St Patrick, Prix Altipan

HORSE TALK: We could tell you that Special Ring started his career in France, winning his maiden at Maisons-Laffitte and races at Chantilly and Saint-Cloud. We could also tell you that in the United States, he ran for Jack Preston's Prestonwood Farm and was trained by Julio Canani, who urged the gelding to seven wins, including back-to-back victories in the Grade 1 Eddie Read Handicap at Del Mar. But what we really want to tell you is that the blood-bay son of Nureyev has learned to curl his upper lip and show you his tattoo if you give him a treat. Try it. Curl, chomp. Curl, chomp. Curl, chomp. It's as certain as death and taxes. Who says you can't teach an old horse new tricks?

Star Plus (Arg)

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay gelding

Birth date: July 18, 2003

Sire: Alpha Plus

Dam: Nannar

Old Friends entry date: 2012

Earnings: $176,503

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Joaquin S. Anchorena (Arg-G1)

HORSE TALK: Thanks to Star Plus's former rider Darcy Scudero and former owner Earle Mack, the Argentinian-bred found his way to Old Friends in 2012. He had been sold under the condition that he never be raced again due to a serious injury, but Mack's wishes were ignored. Undeterred, Mack persevered, tracking Star Plus from track to track until he got him back and retired him to Old Friends. Star is a loveable, excitable retiree who follows the feed truck along the paddock until he gets what he wants. He demands a fee of carrots, almost like a toll collector, and loves to run along the fence, challenging us running-impaired humans to try and beat him. We never do.

Starspangled Heat

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Chestnut gelding

Birth date: Nov. 22, 2008

Sire: Unusual Heat

Dam: Bel Air Belle

Old Friends entry date: 2015

Earnings: $476,685

HORSE TALK: Starspangled Heat can best be described by one word — warrior. He is a Nov. 22 foal who always gave it his all while fighting from behind. "Star" is precocious and tenacious. He needed to be as he carried that over to a racing career that saw him win a maiden race as a not-yet 3-year-old while defeating older rivals. He won at distances from 6 1/2 furlongs to 1 3/8 miles, and is the only offspring of Unusual Heat to be entered in two Breeders' Cup races in different years. He never ran for a claiming tag and gave everything he had on the racetrack. — Harris Auerbach, owner

Summer Attraction

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Bay gelding

Birth date: May 26, 1995

Sire: Dominated

Dam: Summer Pasture

Old Friends entry date: 2012

Earnings: $28,214

HORSE TALK: I first met Summer Attraction in 1997, when he was 2 years old. His owner, Thomas Wilmott, purchased him for $5,000 in Florida. A few weeks after Silver Charm won the Kentucky Derby in 1997, Summer won his maiden going two furlongs against three others at Suffolk Downs. Two years later, Summer was still eligible for nonwinners-of-two lifetime at the bottom of the claiming ladder and was entered in a $3,000 nonwinners-of-two race at Finger Lakes on Mother's Day. I gathered up the trainer and a pocketful of cash obtained by credit-card advances, and, after surviving a shake, brought Summer home. Today, he's bonded with Ferocious Won and lives in a herd of eight in the back. And he's still as cute as ever. — Michael Blowen, devoted owner

HORSE TALK: Sun King is quite the stalker. He will follow the person carrying the carrot bucket the length of his paddock fence to make sure they don't want to give him a couple more pieces. He will also come flying across his paddock for carrots. He is always an easy photo op when I am heading to the back of the farm. I have a feeling he's enjoying his paddock, where he gets to greet just about every tour that visits the farm. — Laura Battles, Old Friends photographer and tour guide

When he died in 2006, his estate asked us to give Benburb and Thornfield a home. We jumped at the chance. While Benburb has passed, Thornfield has survived and prospered. Thornfield is as handsome as he is athletic and enjoys life in his paddock with his best-friend-forever Ball Four.

Timothy James

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Dark bay or brown gelding
Birth date: Unknown
Sire: Hat Trick
Dam: Dancin Charisse
Old Friends entry date: 2016
Earnings: $0

HORSE TALK: Most racehorses are deemed special for what they do on the track, but Timothy James's impact has been far greater than any momentary achievement. He's shown through his perseverance and character that a single horse can mend the hearts of a broken family. He was named after Timothy James Reynolds, who died tragically in 2011 but whose spirit lives on through Timothy James. TJ had to fight for survival since birth. As a weanling, he battled colic, which led to an expensive surgery. TJ was part of a farm rescue in Mercer County, Ky., and was reunited with Tim's parents, Alice and Wayne, at Old Friends. They now visit him regularly. For TJ, it's a life he's always deserved. For Alice and Wayne, it's one more moment with their son. — Scott Dick, sponsor

Sire: Hat Trick

Dam: Tonichi

Old Friends entry date: 2018

Earnings: $282,877

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Laurel Turf Cup S., John's Call S.

HORSE TALK: Talk about aptly named. Tricky Hat was exactly that – tricky. I had followed him on the flat where he had beaten our Grade 3 stakes winner Eagle Poise in the Laurel Turf Cup. After talking to trainer Shug McGaughey, we offered the mercurial gelding a chance over hurdles and later timber. He was enthralled by jumping, enjoyed fox hunting, relished farm life, loved playing in the stream near his barn in Monkton, Md. He was always challenging, that was him, but it was a fun challenge. We are thankful he found a soft landing at Old Friends. He deserves it. – Sean Clancy, Riverdee Stables

He won at the highest levels, taking at age 3 the prestigious Queen's Plate in Canada; at 4, the Vosburgh at Belmont, and competing at high levels until his retirement in 2000. Windy Land

BARBARA D. LIVINGSTON

Birth date: April 28, 1999

Sire: Mixed Pleasure

Dam: Distant Star

Old Friends entry date: 2016

Earnings: $0

HORSE TALK: After serving as friend and caretaker to his sire, Mixed Pleasure, I was very excited when Old Friends was asked to provide a retirement home for his only male offspring, Windy Land. When All Breeds Rez Q in Washington needed to downsize its herd, the wheels were set in motion for the unraced gelding to make the cross-country journey to Kentucky. Windy Land not only has his father's good looks, but I'm amazed at some of the personality and behavior mannerisms that remind me of Mixed Pleasure. I'm beyond honored to care for him and will forever be grateful to Michael and Old Friends for providing him a soft spot to land. — John Bradley, Old Friends staff

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Won Metropolitan H. (G1), Brooklyn H. (G2), Cowdin S. (G2), Riva Ridge S. (G3)

HORSE TALK: Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel loved Old Friends. He left us generous donations and many of his trophies. So when any of Bobby's horses need a home, they jump to the top of the list. You and I formerly stood at Airdrie Stud, whose owner, Brereton C. Jones, is a big supporter of Old Friends. You and I came to us in September 2011 after standing in Washington. There's not a better-looking horse on the farm, and he knows it. He loves to ogle the white Arabian mares next door at Edgewood Farm. He may not be breeding anymore, but he hasn't lost his touch with the ladies. — Michael Blowen

HALL OF FAME

Albert the Great

B., h., 1997-2021, by Go for Gin—Bright Feather, by Fappiano

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,012,490; Major Races Won: Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1), Suburban H. (G2), Brooklyn H. (G2)

Michael Blowen: Albert the Great was, as his name suggests, imperious. He was the king, and everyone else – human and equine – were serfs. As long as he got what he wanted when he wanted it, everything was fine. But if his neighbors, including son Nobiz Like Shobiz, got any attention before he did, he pawed the ground, threatening an exacting price for the breakdown in protocol. A king to the end.

Alphabet Soup

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,990,270; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), San Antonio H. (G2), San Pasqual H. (G2), Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. (G2), Pat O'Brien H. (G3), Native Diver H. (G3); set track record for 1 1/4 miles at Woodbine; sired 52 stakes winners

Michael Blowen: It won't be the same around here without Soup. Over these seven years, he was a delight to be around, with his sweet nature and enormous popularity. He brought joy to everyone. His best friend, the donkey Gorgeous George, will miss him terribly, and so will everyone on the farm. We are so grateful to Frank Stronach and everyone at Adena Springs for giving us the privilege of retiring this fabulous champion.

Awad

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,270,131; Major Races Won: Arlington Million (G1), Manhattan (G1), Secretariat (G1), Sword Dancer Invitational (G1)

David Donk, trainer: Wow, it's been almost 30 years since Awad broke his maiden in the Pilgrim Stakes. Fay and I owe so much to Awad, who has given us so many wonderful memories. Little did we know that he would take us on a world tour of racing, winning races at Hialeah, Gulfstream, Belmont, and Arlington, along with two trips to Japan to run in the Japan Cup.

Michael Blowen adds that if you call the Donks' home and no one answers, the machine says, "You've reached the home of Fay and David Donk in the house that Awad bought."

Awesome Again

B., h., 1994-2021, by Deputy Minister—Primal Force, by Blushing Groom

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $4,374,590; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), Whitney H. (G1), Queen's Plate S.

Michael Blowen: When Awesome Again was pensioned to Old Friends, he was reunited with old competitors – Silver Charm and Touch Gold – and two of his best sons, Awesome Gem and Game On Dude. It took him about one minute to adapt. He stepped off the Adena Springs trailer, took a deep breath, walked directly to his paddock, conveniently located next to Game On Dude's, and announced to his other neighbors – Sarava, Nicanor, and Little Mike – that he'd arrived, and he began munching on his hay. No muss. No fuss. Just class.

Benburb

Gr. or ro., g., 1989-2012, by Dr. Carter—Rosedon, by Vice Regent

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,150,949; Major Races Won: Molson Export Million (G2), Prince of Wales; Honors: Canada's 1992 Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old male

Val Mulgrave, volunteer: Bennie was kind of a calm, wise old uncle with other horses at Old Friends. He was the one tapped to pair up with young horses just off the track, and he would show them the pasture ropes. It didn't matter if the youngster was aggressive, high-strung, or tightly wrapped. Bennie just did his thing and calmed them down. Bennie's first young ward was Smokey Stover, and he subsequently was paired with many others. But I still think of him with Smokey – the white horse and the black one, contentedly grazing side by side.

Bint Marscay

Ch., m., 1990-2019, by Marscay—Eau d'Etoile, by Sir Tristram

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,034,821; Major Races Won: Golden Slipper (Aus-G1), Chirnside (Aus-G2), Magic Night (Aus-G2); Honors: Champion 2-year-old filly in Australia

Richard Freedman, trainer: I was saddened to hear of the passing of Bint Marscay. She was one of the greatest 2-year-olds to race in Australia, and she remains a yardstick by which Australian 2-year-olds are still measured today. She gave me, my family, and her racing connections so much joy. Thanks to Old Friends for taking such good care of her in retirement. She deserved no less.

Black Tie Affair

*Gr. h., 1986-2010, by Miswaki—Hat Tab Girl,
by Al Hattab*

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,370,694; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Classic (G1), Metropolitan (G1), Philip H. Iselin (G1); Honors: 1991 Horse of the Year and champion older male; sire of 39 stakes winners

Dee Poulos, supporter, wife of late trainer Ernie Poulos: He was just life-changing for us. It was such a wonderful experience with him. He was an inspiration for me.

Michael Blowen: It was an honor to be associated with such an amazing athlete. The Old Friends team did everything we could to help this old warrior. In the end, he exhibited the same class as he did when he won the Breeders' Cup Classic. He was the best in every way.

Bonnie's Poker

*Dk. b. or br. m., 1982-2010, by Poker—What a Surprise,
by Wise Margin*

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Dam of Silver Charm—Racing Hall of Fame class of 2007, 1997 champion 3-year-old male, winner of Kentucky Derby (G1), Preakness (G1), Dubai World Cup (UAE-G1), earner of $6,944,369

Michael Blowen: What a dame! While famous as the dam of Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm and as the 1997 Florida broodmare of the year, Bonnie's Poker also was a tough little racehorse, winning races for trainer Oscar Barrera in the middle of winter at Aqueduct. Kris Jakeman pensioned her to Old Friends, where she tolerated us for several years. She ran the mare paddock until the day she died.

Cajun Beat

Dk. b. or br. g., 2000-2020, by Grand Slam—Beckys Shirt, by Cure the Blues

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,159,100; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1), Hollywood Turf Express (G3), Kentucky Cup Sprint (G3), Mr. Prospector (G3)

Satish Sanan, Padua Stables owner: Cajun Beat was a very special horse—amongst the very best I owned. He was tough when he raced and kind when he was in the barn. His win in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Santa Anita was very, very special. He left an indelible mark in horse racing history.

Charismatic

Ch., h., 1996-2017, by Summer Squall—Bali Babe, by Drone

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,038,064; Major Races Won: Kentucky Derby (G1), Preakness (G1), Lexington S. (G2)

Michael Blowen: A few days after we'd made arrangements to bring Charismatic home, I was in the back of the musty basement and found a framed, dusty poster of Charismatic's 1999 Kentucky Derby victory. On the glass was a Post-it note that read, "Save for when he comes home." It was dated April 11, 2004. I couldn't imagine any horse who we'd rather have at Old Friends. He deserved a much longer retirement. But none of us, unfortunately, has a magic wand. Everyone at Old Friends takes solace from the few special months that this great champion gave us.

Creator

Ch., h., 1986-2015, by Mill Reef—Chalon, by Habitat

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $550,537; Major Races Won: Prix d'Ispahan (Fr-G1), Prix Ganay (Fr-G1), Prix d'Harcourt (Fr-G2), Prix Dollar (Fr-G2), Prix Guillaume d'Ornano (Fr-G2)

Michael Blowen: Diane, my wife, adored Creator, once commenting, after I idiotically said that I thought she liked him more than she liked me, "Well, he's bigger, he's stronger, he's more athletic, he made more money, he's smarter, and he's better looking." Enough said. He really enjoyed native strawberries, Harry and David pears, and Diane's constant attention.

Einstein

Dk. b. or br. h., 2002-2020, by Spend a Buck—Gay Charm, by Ghadeer

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,945,237; Major Races Won: Santa Anita H. (G1), Gulfstream Park Turf (G1), Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup (G1), Woodford Reserve Turf (G1) twice, Clark H. (G2)

Michael Blowen: It didn't take a genius to appreciate Einstein. The Brazilian-bred son of Spend a Buck was a multiple Grade 1 stakes winner whose larger-than-life personality made him a favorite of everyone here at the farm (particularly staff member John Bradley) and the thousands of visitors who came to see him every year.

Fraise

B., h., 1988-2005, by Strawberry Road—Zalataia, by Dictus

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,613,105; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Turf (G1), Hollywood Turf Cup (G1), Sword Dancer (G1); Repatriated from Japan to Old Friends in 2005

Michael Blown: If Madeleine Paulson weren't such a good golfer, Fraise may never have triumphed in the 1992 Breeders' Cup Turf. The wife of the late Allen Paulson won Fraise from her husband in a wager on the green, decided he should be competing on the grass, not the dirt, and turned over training duties to Bill Mott, who had won the Breeders' Cup Turf with Theatrical in 1987. The result was a record-breaking Breeders' Cup Turf win by a head in a blazing 2:24.

Gulch

B., h., 1984-2016, by Mr. Prospector—Jameela, by Rambunctious

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,015,521; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1), Metropolitan (G1) twice, Wood Memorial (G1), Carter (G1), Futurity (G1), Hopeful (G1); 1988 champion sprinter; Sire of 75 stakes winners

Lane's End Farm: When Gulch retired to stud in 1989, Lane's End was a young farm. We had opened our stallion division just four years earlier. Gulch was a strong stallion prospect, and he wasted no time at Lane's End showing that he would be an outstanding sire. It's no exaggeration to say he helped lay the foundation of one of the world's most successful farms. Indeed, years from now, when people talk about Lane's End's beginnings, they will talk about Gulch. And for that, we thank our old friend.

Hidden Lake

B., m., 1993-2016, by Quiet American—Friendly Circle, by Round Table

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $947,489; Major Races Won: Beldame (G1), Go for Wand (G1), Hempstead (G1), Shuvee (G2), La Brea (G2); 1997 champion older female

Barbara Fossum: It was easy to see why Hidden Lake was a champion. From her courageous victory in the 1997 Go for Wand Stakes at Saratoga, to the seven foals she carried, foaled, and raised, to her life in the retirement paddock she shared with Australian champion Bint Marscay, Miss Lake was determined to be first in everything she did. That determination, even at age 23, defined who she was until the day she died. And it was why she had an Eclipse Award sitting on the mantel in her run-in shed.

Marquetry

Ch., h., 1987-2013, by Conquistador Cielo—Regent's Walk, by Vice Regent

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,857,886; Major Races Won: Eddie Read (G1), Hollywood Gold Cup (G1), Meadowlands Cup (G1); Sire of champions Artax and Squirtle Squirt

Michael Blown: I like, to one degree or another, all of our retirees; Marquetry was at the top of the list. After spending each day in his paddock, directly in front of the house so we could appreciate the view, Marquetry would greet Reymundo at the gate at 4 p.m. sharp. He'd prance up the driveway and walk through the barn door and into his stall, where fresh hay, feed, and carrots awaited him. If there were not enough carrots, he'd shoot us a look and neigh. He knew what he wanted and when he wanted it, but he was never rude. His majesty is difficult to capture in words.

Ogygian

B., h., 1983-2015, by Damascus—Gonfalon, by Francis S.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $455,520; Major Races Won: Futurity (G1), Dwyer (G1), Jerome (G1); Broodmare sire of Cartier European champion 2-year-old male Johannesburg; great-grand sire of the late leading North American sire Scat Daddy

Michael Blown: Ogygian was among the first Thoroughbreds we brought home from Japan when his breeding career was over. Thanks to him, we established a wonderful relationship with associations in Japan that has worked to our benefit. Ogygian paved the way for others to follow, including 1997 Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm and 2002 Kentucky Derby winner War Emblem.

Precisionist

Ch., h., 1981-2006, by Crozier—Excellently, by Forli

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,485,398; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1), Californian (G1), Charles H. Strub (G1), San Fernando (G1), Swaps (G1), Woodward (G1); Hall of Fame class of 2003; 1985 champion sprinter

Michael Blown: Due to the extraordinary generosity of Dr. Siobhan Ellison, who donated this great champion to Old Friends, we were honored to have Precisionist in our care and humbled by the trust Ellison put in us. We all wish he could have stayed a little longer. But in those brief four months, punctuated by frequent visits from his great jockey, Chris McCarron, Precisionist taught us a lot. Not just about how he liked his stall fluffed and where he liked his neck rubbed but about dignity and, of course, class.

Prized

Dk. b. or br., h., 1986-2014, by Kris S.—My Turbulent Miss, by My Dad George

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,262,555; Major Races Won: Breeders' Cup Turf (G1), San Luis Rey (G1), Swaps (G2); Sire of millionaire Brass Hat; maternal grandsire of 2014 Kentucky Oaks (G1) winner and millionaire Untapable

Michael Blowen: Prized still loved to race, whether it was against Little Silver Charm or You and I. But his favorite pal was Sunshine Forever. In the 1989 Breeders' Cup Turf, Prized was in the starting gate next to Sunshine Forever. At Old Friends, they were in adjoining paddocks. It doesn't get much better than that. One summer, we brought Prized up every afternoon from his paddock for a cool shower, extra carrots, and the adulation of his fans. He loved it.

Ruhlmann

Dk. b. or br., h., 1985-2008, by Mr. Leader—Indian Maiden, by Chieftain

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,824,154; Major Races Won: Mervyn LeRoy (G1), Santa Anita Handicap (G1)

Beth Shannon, tour guide: On the track, Ruhlmann had searing speed, endurance, and indomitable competitive will. At Old Friends, his fierce looks made visitors step back. But when he poked out his head, tilting it with flattened ears as if to threaten, "Gimme a treat or else," their alarm turned to warmth. They saw that behind his tough ways, Ruhlmann had bound us to him with deep ties. He returned affection for respect. Ruhlmann filled far more space than his small, nearly black body did, and his passing left a big emptiness.

Sunshine Forever

B., h., 1985-2014, by Roberto—Outward Sunshine, by Graustark

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $2,084,800; Major Races Won: Budweiser International (G1), Man o' War (G1), Turf Classic (G1), Lexington (G2); 1988 champion grass male; repatriated from Japan to Old Friends in 2004

Kate Dunn, supporter: Sunshine Forever struck me with his presence the first time I ever saw him. He stood in his pasture and observed, dignified majesty winning over the long years' wear on his body. When I reflect on my memory of Sunshine the last time I saw him, his dignity continued to dominate. He had a majestic presence. His coat gleamed, his muscles remained strong, his regal eye surveyed his realm. To the end, Sunshine embodied the imposing beauty of the Thoroughbred.

Taylor's Special

B., h., 1981-2006, by Hawkin's Special—Bette's Gold, by Espea

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,065,805; Major Races Won: Blue Grass (G1), Louisiana Derby (G2), Washington Park (G2); Track record, Arlington Park, six furlongs in 1:08

Michael Blowen: The reputation of Taylor's Special rests on a staggering 21 wins from 41 starts over five years, with 13 stakes wins at nine different tracks. At 5, he crushed the six-furlong record at Arlington Park – a record that, unfortunately, outlasted him. But as great as he was on the track, he was even better as a retiree. At Old Friends, he loved posing for pictures and showing off for visitors, throwing his head back and arching his back, showing all that there was still something left in the son of Hawkin's Special. Everyone loved him.

The Wicked North

Ch., h., 1989-2011, by Far North—Wicked Witchcraft, by Good Behaving

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $1,180,750; Major Races Won: Californian (G1), Oaklawn (G1); 1994 champion older male; track record, Hollywood Park, 1 1/8 miles in 1:46.60

Tim Ford, volunteer: I still remember the first time I saw him. He came off the truck, this big strapping chestnut with a striking blaze and white socks. I always said his sweet nature made him a tour favorite, and his picture filled many pages of scrapbooks. He had the heart of a Thoroughbred, the heart of champion, the heart of a true and faithful friend. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about him and miss him. He will live on forever in the hearts of everyone who knew him.

War Emblem

Dk. b. or b., g., 1999-2020, by Our Emblem—Sweetest Lady, by Lord At War

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Earned $3,491,000; Major Races Won: Kentucky Derby (G1), Preakness (G1), Haskell Invitational (G1); 2002 champion 3-year-old male

Michael Blowen: I know we're supposed to appreciate all of our retirees the same, but War Emblem was special. He was tough, narcissistic, bold, and handsome. I adored him. I proudly count among a very meager number of accomplishments the day he allowed me to put his halter on without biting me. He trusted me. What more could I ask for? The farm will recover from his loss, but it'll never be the same. War Emblem had what all great athletes – humans or equines – possess: talent, intelligence, and iron will. We thought he was immortal.
