Private Charm

2002 gr/ro M Silver Charm – Said Privately (Private Account)

Private Charm bears a striking resemblance to her sire, Silver Charm. She was bred in Kentucky by Gail Peters Beitz and raced under the ownership of Carrol Castille. Trained by Brandon Marks, she made all seven of her starts at Evangeline Downs in Louisiana. After a game second place finish in her first race, the two-year-old grey filly won her second start ridden by Kerwin Clark. At three she raced five times, winning once with jockey Marlon St. Julien. Her race career ended when she pulled up lame. Her total earnings were $27,120. She produced four foals, three of them grey, of which two were winners but none showed particular talent. As too often happens when a horse doesn't earn, Private Charm fell into needy circumstances. Her retirement to Old Friends was enabled by our supporter, Shirley Ford.
