Secret Getaway

2005 ch G Skip Away – Chief's Honey (Chief's Crown)

Secret Getaway, a son of the great Skip Away, was bred by Parrish Hill Farm of Kentucky. In Canada he won the 2008 Victoria Park Stakes and Toronto Cup at Woodbine for owners Sand and Cee Stables and trainer Michael Stidham, with jockey Emma-Jayne Wilson. At the Fair Grounds in Louisiana he won the 2008 Tenacious Handicap with James Graham riding. Though he achieved all his stakes victories at three years old, he continued to race and earn through age eight. After his last start in May 2013, he entered stud for his final racing owners, Law Legacy Stables. He produced one small crop of foals in 2015, some of which raced and won, but his stud career was not a success. Secret Getaway was retired to Old Friends in 2017. He has settled well into gelding-hood. The handsome chestnut has proved himself sociable with his herd and kind to his human friends.
